

The original documents are located in Box C1, folder “Allen, James B.” of the Gerald and Betty Ford Special Materials Collection at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

UNITED STATES SENATE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

JAMES B. ALLEN
ALABAMA

December 1, 1976

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Ford:

Maryon and I extend our sincerest best wishes to you as you complete your roles as President and First Lady.

How down to earth and friendly you have been! What a great team you make!

You have been good for America and have left your mark on our Nation. It is a good mark.

History will record that in the dark days of despair and depression that our people were experiencing when you assumed the Presidency, you, Mr. President, proved to be the right man at the right time to restore public confidence in our government, to stabilize the economy and move our Nation toward economic recovery.

We salute you for your dedicated service, for your gallant race for the Presidency and for your sportsmanship in defeat.

UNITED STATES SENATE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

December 1, 1976

James E. Allen
Alaska

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Ford:

Marjoe and I extend our sincerest best wishes to you as you complete your roles as President and First Lady.

How down to earth and friendly you have been! What a great team you make!

You have been good for America and have left your mark on our Nation. It is a good mark.

History will record that in the dark days of despair and depression that our people were experiencing when you assumed the Presidency, Mr. President, proved to be the right man at the right time to restore public confidence in our government, to stabilize the economy and move our Nation toward economic recovery.

We salute you for your dedicated service, for your gallant race for the Presidency and for your sportsmanship in defeat.

You still have much to offer in service to our Country and we know that you will respond in appropriate fashion.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Jim Allen". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long, sweeping underline.

The President and Mrs. Ford
The White House

You still have much to offer in service to our Country and we know that you will respond in appropriate manner.

Sincerely,

The President and Mrs. Ford
The White House