THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

November 4

Dear Mr. President:

Just a very personal note to express both my deep sorrow in not having been able to squeeze those last few votes out of it -- and my great pride to have had the chance to work for you.

I suspect I'm not alone in appreciating more than ever in the last two days what you have meant for this country in the last two years. Your legacy of restored trust will, I believe, enable each President that follows to govern more wisely.

That's not the same as an election miracle, but it's more important.

Doug
