THIRD DISTRICT, FLORIDA

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...

Nov. 9, 1976

Dear Mr. President:

MP
I know not being reelected was a great disappointment to you; and I am writing to express the thought to you that what really counts is the quantity of public service that you have performed for our country and that has been outstanding. You gave a firm and excellent leadership to our country when such was greatly needed. I congratulate you on it and wish for you and yours every happiness in the future -

Sincerely
Charles Bennett

THE FOLLOWING HAS BEEN ...

Nov. 11 1976

Dear Mr. President:

I have not had time to write you a great deal but I am writing to inform the thought that what would be a great pleasure for me would be to have your opinion on the matter. I have had a fine time in the past and was very much interested in the future.
