The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I am very saddened by the results of the election Tuesday. I feel that you have done a remarkable job in the two years you have served as our President, and I was glad to have had the opportunity to vote for you at Kansas City and to serve as Co-Chairman of your Virginia Campaign. I thought you ran a fine campaign, and I only wish that one or two other states could have joined us to allow you to lead the country for the next four years.

With all good wishes, I am

Very truly yours,
