Dear Mr. President:

Your letter of November 16, commenting on my election to the Senate was most thoughtful. Many thanks for your encouraging words.

I am most disappointed in the results of the Presidential election. However, the election in no way reflects the gratitude so many of us feel for the magnificent contribution you have made to our country. You have renewed our confidence when it was so badly shaken and given us the stability America desperately needed.

On a more partisan note, I hope that you will continue to play an active leadership role in the Republican Party during the years ahead. We really need you.

Sincerely,
