Dear Mr. President:

I am proud to have your picture and I greatly appreciate the expression of your confidence and friendship. I am also proud of the way you conducted the office of President. You served magnificently at a time of great stress when your personal qualifications and integrity were sorely needed and gave the people confidence. I believe you did the job better than anyone else could have and I believe every thinking American has reached the same judgment. The election results were a reflection, however, of "block" voting in which no judgment was exercised in many instances. I suppose this will always be one of the shortcomings of our electoral process.

The sincerity and integrity with which you tackled the job is admired by everyone and will be pointed to with pride by all your admirers. The country and the world are better off for your service as President of the United States.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Donald S. Dawson
