Dear Jerry:

RW
You ran a terrific race. I wish I could have helped more, but as you know I am somewhat incapacitated and am taking treatment out in California.

It is interesting that you won everything West of the Mississippi except Texas, and if you hadn't been running against a southerner I am sure you would have won. You did a great job for the country and we are all going to miss you whether we are in politics or not.

Best regards. Nancy joins me in sending our love to you and Betty.

Sincerely,

Peter

P.S. Dear Ones—

We're mad, mad, sick, sick—
We need you so much in the White House these next 4 years.

You've been so dignified and terrific in this debacle, the 2 of you.

Someday I hope we can get together again & have fun and laughs.

Much love—

P.P.S. No answer please... Nancy
