Dear Mr. President:

RH
How grateful I am for your excellent service as our nation's leader!

In two short years you have accomplished so much -- you restored confidence in the integrity of the presidency; you solidified America's commitment to world peace; and, despite a big-spending Congress, you made major gains in strengthening our economy.

Two years ago some were saying Jerry Ford was a good receiver in bankruptcy for our government. That was true. But you also proved yourself to be a man of incredible compassion and sensitivity to the needs of individual people. You proved yourself to be a man of vision in a time when vision was (and is) so desperately needed. And you proved yourself to be a superb leader in an office you did not seek.

The Duncan family will fondly remember the Ford years (I served in your administration and my brother, Steve, managed your campaign in Colorado). And we join with many millions of other Americans in expressing our love and gratitude to you.

Sincerely,

Rodger Dean Duncan
