THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN. . . .

Dear Mr. President,

I'm sure it's little solace to know that over 38 million voters wanted it the other way!

But having known you for so many years I just want to let you know you're as great a loser as you are a winner!

It was a hard fought, strenuous campaign, but one that reflected the kind of thoughtful, truthful and compassionate man you are.

I think you will go down in history as the President most responsible for returning dignity and respect to the highest office in the land. For that, the American public should be eternally grateful.

Best wishes to you and your fine family for success and happiness in the future.

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Bob
