Dear Mr. President:

I am grateful for the telegram you forwarded to me on Election Day. It was very kind of you.

Unfortunately, as you were affected by the massive voter turn out among Democrats, so was I.

I want you to know that Americans in their infinite wisdom are capable of erring. In my judgement, they erred on November 2 in voting to elect a new President.

Good luck and Godspeed. You are in both Jan and my thoughts and prayers.

Warmly and sincerely,

Carleton S. Finkbeiner
