Dear Mr. President:

Because of the excitement of the election campaign and our disappointment thereafter, I have not gotten around to writing a proper letter of appreciation for your fine work as our country's Chief Executive. I merely want to correct that omission and to tell you that I thought your work was superior.

It was a real pleasure to serve with you in the House of Representatives and to follow your leadership there and in the White House. I wanted very much for you to have your own full four-year term as President, but, since that was not to be, I am very grateful for the partial term you had.

I know that the next stage of your career will be challenging too, and I am glad that there will be more time for family and recreational pursuits now. If I can be helpful to you in any way, I hope you know you have only to ask. Again, many thanks for what you have done for our country.

Best regards,
