Mr.
My Dear Mr. President:

As the results trickled in Tuesday evening, my own joy and satisfaction was diminished by the realization that our Nation's leader would not be returning to office. It is a great loss, not only to those who served with you and to the Republican Party, but to the entire Nation.

I hope that you will find some satisfaction in the pride and respect you brought to the office of the Chief Executive.

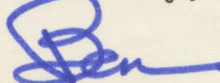

You can be justly proud of a well run, hard fought campaign, aided by thousands of dedicated followers.

If I can be of any assistance to you in the days and weeks ahead, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

Jane joins with me in wishing you and Betty health and happiness in the days ahead.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN A. GILMAN
Member of Congress
