Dear Mr. President:

This letter should be started "Dear Jerry" but I have not only respect for you, but respect for the office you hold. I want you to know that this American, who tried to be elected and got the living heck kicked out of him, has nothing but respect in his heart and soul for what you have done for our country. For the years left in my life, I will be forever grateful that you pulled our country out of the hole it was in and did for it what you have done.

My love to Betty and your family and my eternal respect and admiration to you,

Barry Goldwater
