Dear Jerry,

I do appreciate your gift of the gold pin, and wore it October 31st. when I shared the podium with Pete Dominici at our final GOP rally.

I am pleased with the voting in Lincoln County and all of New Mexico where 75 to 80 % of those registered went to the polls and selected Republicans mostly. You had a large majority.

Please remember how many millions of Americans are disappointed that you are not to be retained in the White House. We felt you were doing a fine job and are a great leader. There were too many voters not as concerned with basic issues as the wish for a complete obliterating of the ordeals in Washington in recent years.

Post mortems are best forgotten. As you know, after losing a game, the only consolation is knowing that you played your best. You still have many years of service to give to your country. January will offer new horizons, challenges to better the many facets of our life -- in education -- law -- politics, or wherever you feel your worth will be most useful.

Don't let your friends down now. You never have. We still need you, Jerry Ford!

Sincerely,

Dorothy Guck
