

The original documents are located in Box C2, folder “Haggar, E. R.” of the Gerald and Betty Ford Special Materials Collection at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

P-94

HAGGAR COMPANY 6113 LEMMON AVENUE, DALLAS, TEXAS 75209

November 3, 1976

E. R. HAGGAR, SR.

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

Dear Mr. President:

Congratulations on a magnificent comeback. You are a great leader and through your efforts you have brought our great country out of the doldrums of Watergate and the divisiveness of Vietnam; you truly have turned this country around and have gotten the Ship of State on an even keel.

I and the millions of people who have voted for you admire and respect you greatly. This alone tells us that maybe the American people are beginning to wake up to the reality that government can't do everything for the individual without the individual paying through the nose in the form of higher taxes and greater inflation.

All your friends at Haggar are very sorry that you didn't win and we hope the real losers will not be the American people.

You are great, you have done a wonderful job and we are all proud of you.

Warmest regards to you, Mrs. Ford and the family.

Sincerely,

E. R. Haggar

Dear Ed

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

HAGGAR COMPANY 6115 LEMMON AVENUE DALLAS TEXAS 75208

November 3, 1976

E. R. HAGGAR, JR.

THE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN...

Dear Mr. President:

Congratulations on a magnificent comeback. You are a great leader and through your efforts you have brought our great country out of the doldrums of Watergate and the divisiveness of Vietnam; you truly have turned this country around and have gotten the ship of State on an even keel.

I and the millions of people who have voted for you admire and respect you greatly. This alone tells us that maybe the American people are beginning to wake up to the reality that government can't do everything for the individual without the individual paying through the nose in the form of higher taxes and greater inflation.

All your friends at Haggar are very sorry that you didn't win and we hope the real losers will not be the American people.

You are great, you have done a wonderful job and we are all proud of you.

Warmest regards to you, Mrs. Ford and the family.

Sincerely,

E. R. Haggar, Jr.

