The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

It is with sadness that I write this letter but I did want you to know that I think you did an excellent job in steering the helm of our nation during most trying times.

You certainly can be very proud of the accomplishments of your Administration.

I shall always consider it an honor to have served with you in the Congress and also while you were our 38th President.

With every best wish for you and Mrs. Ford, I remain

Sincerely,

Elwood H. Hillis
