THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

November 5, 1976

H.E. The President Gerald R. Ford
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

I know how you and Betty must feel, having suffered defeat myself.

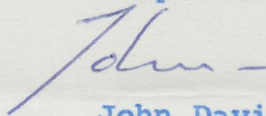

However, you fought a vigorous campaign based on a record which will, I think, hold up as time goes by.

Francesca and I were glad to have been a part of the campaign, particularly here in Connecticut where we had considerable success.

We hope very much that we shall have the pleasure of seeing you and Betty soon.

With warmest greetings to you both from both of us.

Respectfully and sincerely,

John Davis Lodge

P.S. All told you received a massive vote of confidence.
