THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN.

4 November 1976

Dear Mr. President:

RA
When the final chapter of your remarkable contribution to this Country is written, I'm convinced you will be assigned with those of your predecessors who gave a special touch to the office that we all respect and esteem. No two years in our history has known its equal but your own courage and leadership gave us back our pride and honor. That, Sir, is no small accomplishment.

To your beautiful Betty and your uniquely special family I send my respect and prayers.

It has been a special honor to have known you and Betty. At this most special time, I send you my prayers and affection.

Respectfully yours,

Father "Hank"
