Dear Mr. President
and Mrs. Ford:

I couldn't overlook this opportunity to say "hello" to you. Your vacation house is right next door to Lela Rogers, my mother's home. Her property ends where Mr. Frestones begins on Sand Dunes Road.

We who voted for you to be Our President (we, the 49% - wishing we were 51%) are so sad not to have you, President Ford in the White House for the next four important years, where we wanted you to be.

Knowing how busy you are I shall refrain from asking to see you - but I should like to wish you every good wish in your future activities - whatever direction you take.

(Since I've just returned from Las Vegas with my dancing act - and since you are such a great dancer, Mr. President, I wonder if you'd like to give up politics and..... NO, guess you wouldn't! But you can't say you weren't asked!!!)

Hope you like our Thunderbird Golf Course, I think it is "super!!"

Warm good wishes to two precious people.

Sincerely,
