WAYNE M. ROGERS

November 5, 1976

Dear Mr. President:

Letters under these circumstances are probably best left as unrecorded thoughts. In this case, I cannot but help to express what I feel. You ran a great race. It was a pleasure to share with you some crucial campaign moments, to learn that you are a compassionate and sensitive human being, and - at the risk of being misunderstood - a better man than your party or your country. Your star will rise in history and I am just glad that I was a part of it.

Kindest personal regards,

W. M. Rogers
