Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Ford:

Against overwhelming odds, you came within a hair's breadth of achieving the political upset of the century. You and your campaign team are to be congratulated for a magnificent effort. It matched the high standards that have characterized your Presidency ever since you took office on that somber day in August 1974.

The Ford Administration will be remembered for restoring peace, prosperity and principle to public life in the United States. No President could ever wish for a more commendable record of achievement than that.

Here in Puerto Rico, we deeply appreciate the help we have received from you and the White House staff these past two years, and we were honored to welcome you personally to our island this past June.

My wife Kate and our children join me in wishing you and Betty and your fine family every happiness now and in the years to come.

With warmest regards and admiration.

Yours sincerely,

Carlos Romero Barcelo
