

The original documents are located in Box C4, folder “Sandor, George” of the Gerald and Betty Ford Special Materials Collection at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

9.94

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...

GEORGE SANDOR
3204 Palos Verdes Drive North
Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. 90274

November 11, 1976

The President of the United States,
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

I hope this letter is not an intrusion. I know that loosing the Presidency is a hurt that only a handful of men will ever know but being somewhat close to you I thought we shared those trying hours with you during Election night. We still remembered your first speech when you said that our national nightmare was over. We want to thank you now that you were there when we needed you the most. I think that our nation never can repay you for the service you gave to your countrymen in the most difficult time of our history.

This letter is a note of gratitude not only on a personal basis but mostly on the basis of being an American. It is impossible to put my feelings into words but please know, the feelings are there, and that we will never forget.

Thank you again Mr. President.

Respectfully yours,

George Sandor

G. SANDOR M.D.

Dear George

THE PRESIDENT HAS BEEN

GEORGE SANDOS
3204 Palos Verdes Drive North
Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. 90274

November 11, 1976

The President of the United States,
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

I hope this letter is not an intrusion. I know that losing the Presidency is a hurt that only a handful of men will ever know but being somewhat close to you I thought we shared those trying hours with you during Election night. We still remembered your first speech when you said that our national nightmare was over. We want to thank you now that you were there when we needed you the most. I think that our nation never can repay you for the service you gave to your countrymen in the most difficult time of our history.

This letter is a note of gratitude not only on a personal basis but mostly on the basis of being an American. It is impossible to put my feelings into words but please know, the feelings are there, and that we will never forget.

Thank you again Mr. President.

Respectfully yours,

George Sandos
G. SANDOS M.D.

