The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for your letter of November 17 expressing regret over my loss in the November 2nd election. I feel the country as a whole is the big loser because of your narrow defeat.

It was an unusual year and I am hopeful that our Republican Party can recoup and come back strong in 1978 and 1980.

Martha Jane joins in conveying our very best wishes to you and Betty for happiness and contentment in whatever you do in the years ahead. I have valued our friendship and look forward to a continued association with you from time to time.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Garner
