Gerald R. Ford,
President, United States,
White House,
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

God will make use of your many talents in your new career phase.

You served the Lord and the nation well as President and you conducted a vigorous campaign for four more years. You will never have to look back with regret.

God has other plans for your life right now. We will pray for you every day...for you and your family.

We read in Romans 8:28 that "all that happens to us is working for our good if we love God and are fitting into His plans."

This applies to razor-thin election results.

It has been a personal pleasure to have known you from Grand Rapids South football days and on to the White House.

"A life of doing right is the wisest life there is."
(Proverbs 4:11)

Yours in Him,

*Dear
Watson*
