THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...

January 5, 1977

Honorable Gerald R. Ford
President of The United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

MR

Dear Mr. President:

It is with regret that I have to write to you for the last time as President of the United States. The electorate certainly made a rather ghastly mistake in the last election, but many of us feel that you have put up a wonderful fight, and made a great record for our Party, and our Country.

I realize that you will never see this letter, but I want you to know of my admiration, and affection for you, ever since the days when I served with you, in the Congress of the United States. I worked hard during the campaign, and my only regret is that I could not work even harder.

With best wishes to you and Betty, for a very Happy New Year, and a long and prosperous life; I am always in your debt, and send you my affectionate good wishes, now and always.
