Dear Dorr

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN....

Gerald R. Ford
The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Keen disappointment came to you this last week in the results of a very close election. I share this with you. It must have pleased you to see that Michigan and well over half the other states ended up in your column.

Although you lost the vote you won the total respect of all Americans by your graciousness to your opponent. I was happy to have worked in your behalf.

In the years that lie ahead you will earn a high place on the ladder of American history. History, I'm sure, will record that you led us well for the two years that you were at the helm of our ship of state. You overcame the nasty ghost of Watergate and had us well on the road to recovery. Posterity will record that you were one of our greatest Presidents.

You have fought a good fight, you have walked tall across the pages of American and World History. You have earned a rest - but I hope you will make yourself available for some office of public trust in the not too distant future.

My very best wishes go out to you, Mrs. Ford and your fine family for many good future years together.

I cherish your friendship.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Dorr N. Wiltse, 33^o
