Dear Mrs. Wischer

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN...

Dear President and Mrs. Ford,

After having been invited by you on three occasions this year to visit the White House and as one of your appointees (Citizens Advisory Council on the Status of Women and PFC American Business Volunteers), this is a most difficult day. I am heartsick for our Country and heartsick personally for you and your family.

When we think of how much progress you made after the Kansas City Convention, you really performed a miracle but you performed it so well that it makes it even tougher to lose such a close race. Never has a president of this country been so crucified and plagued with foolish and unnecessary inquiries.

There is a better day ahead and the contribution you have made to this country has made it a better place in which to live and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Sincerely,

Irene S. Wischer
