The original documents are located in Box C4, folder "Yates, Ruth E." of the Gerald and Betty Ford Special Materials Collection at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

8001 Hazeltine Avenue Van Nuys, CA 91402 November 22, 1976

Rec. 11/24

Mr. Max L. Friedersdorf c/o President Ford White House Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Friedersdorf:

President Ford's loss of the election has weighed heavily on my mind, to the extent that I just had to express myself in the enclosed poem.

Rather than mailing it directly to him, I would appreciate your presenting it to him in person, if you feel it is worthy. It is a humble gesture, but self explanatory.

I felt it would mean more to him knowing that it comes from someone whom you helped when we wrote desperately to solicit his help last March 21, 1976, when Tae M. Kwon was about to be deported so soon after his Valentine wedding to my only daughter, Jane.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Ruth E. Yates

Mrs. Ruth B. Yates

APPRECIATION OF PRESIDENT FORD

Across the nation, heavy hearts
Sympathize with you,
Unfinished plans and thwarted dreams,
A job that wasn't through.

History will be kind to you

And bring your just reward,
Because you soothed a country's wounds

And brought it sweet accord.

Your calming tones and honesty Are things we needed most; Your decency and welcome truth; Of these we proudly boast.

A diamond is a tiny thing,
Its worth exceeds its size;
Likewise the briefness of your term
Your worth can't minimize.

Books will print in glowing words,
"He changed a nation's fate";
And Gerald Ford will take his place
Among the nation's great.

Ruth E. Yates Author of PHILOSOPOEMS

APPRECIATION OF PRESIDENT FORD

Across the nation, heavy hearts
Sympathize with you,
Unfinished plans and thwarted dreams,
A job that wasn't through.

History will be kind to you
And bring your just reward,
Because you soothed a country's wounds
And brought it sweet accord.

Your calming tones and honesty Are things we needed most; Your decency and welcome truth; Of these we proudly boast.

A diamond is a tiny thing,
Its worth exceeds its size;
Likewise the briefness of your term
Your worth can't minimize.

Books will print in glowing words,
"He changed a nation's fate";
And Gerald Ford will take his place
Among the nation's great.

Ruth E. Yates Author of PHILOSOPOEMS

