People for Ford Rally, Olympia, Washington, October 8, 1976

We have twenty-five days until the election and alot of hard work ahead for all of us. But with the help of People for Ford volunteers, Jerry Ford will stay on the job he is doing so well!

You remember those dark days when he came into office. We were all depressed about our country. The economy was in bad shape, and other countries were uneasy about all the confusion in America. That's all changed now, because President Ford provided strong and steady leadership. He has accomplished much in two years with tough decisions and hard work---not with smiles and empty promises.

We don't know what the next four years will bring our country, but we know what kind of leader Jerry Ford is.

The message you can help carry to the people of Washington state is that Jerry Ford offers performance, not promises.

And President Ford is going to need the help of Republicans like John Spellman as Governor to keep common sense in the government.

Gill Ruckelhaus
Governor Evans, ~~future Governor Spellman~~ and all of you--- thanks for your support. Now let's go to work to make

November 2nd a ~~Republican sweep!~~ great victory!

People for Ford Rally, Olympia, Washington, October 8, 1976

We have twenty-five days until election day and alot of hard work ahead for the People for Ford. This campaign depends on you for victory, and it is because of you and the millions of Americans like you that the President wants a full term in office.

He has some important unfinished business, and that's why he wants to stay on the job. Those were pretty dark days when he came into office. You remember how depressed we all were about our country and what bad shape the economy was in. That's all changed now, and the man who lead us out of those unhappy times is Jerry Ford. He didn't do it with alot of empty promises, but with alot of tough decisions.

I think one of the things I've always admired the most about him is his leadership. ~~Leadership~~ He gets things done, because he ~~works~~ works hard and when the time comes to make a ~~diff~~ tough decision he makes it.

Jerry's very old-fashioned about spending money, and he believes the American people should be getting their money's worth for their tax dollars. He knows you can't just keep spending ~~the~~ Federal money and hope to have a sound

In these last few weeks, Jerry Ford needs your help to share with your neighbors and friends ~~the~~ your commitment to his leadership.

In these last few weeks, I hope you will share your commitment to Jerry Ford with your ~~fixe~~ friends and neighbors. On election day, vote and help get Ford votes to the polls. And help him by electing good Republican ~~a~~ candidates like John Spellman.
