Rochester Rally, October 27, 1976

Next week when Jerry and I come home to Michigan, this long campaign will be over, but the next few days are more important than all the past months. Jerry Ford needs your help to carry Michigan, and you know how important it is for him to win in his home state.

I am proud of the job my husband is doing. He has brought peace and stability to America. He has made some tough decisions that have saved billions of your tax dollars. With your vote and support, he will keep fighting for you and your concerns!

The President needs the help of good Republicans in the House and Senate. Marv is an old and dear friend, and we want him back in Washington as Senator Esch. Bill Bloomfield is another very special friend, and we need him back in the House. The President also is concerned about the election of talented newcomers like David Serotkin.

November 2nd---I hope you will vote to put all these fine Michiganders in office. The President and I are counting on you to make this election a very proud one for Michigan. Don't forget to vote!
