Padre Staples Mall Shopping Center, Corpus Christi, Texas
Tuesday, April 20, 1976

All of my life I've heard about the warm and friendly people of Texas, and I want you to know that two days in the state have made a believer out of me. I've been lucky to have close friends from Texas, and now I can appreciate their enthusiasm for their home state.

I'm absolutely delighted to be in Corpus and to have a chance to visit with you. I've found in the past few months of traveling that malls are like courthouse squares were in the past--good places to meet people and talk a little politics.

Texas has just a fabulous political history, and I'm down here hoping to encourage you to add a new page to that history. I hope you'll vote in the Republican primary. I'll bet you can guess my favorite candidate--my husband. Primaries are an important part of our election process, and Texas is a very important primary for President Ford.

You have a chance in Texas to speak out about the job my husband is doing for our country. I really hope you'll do that--- by voting in the Republican primary.

Texas is a big state physically and ^{important} politically---and I hope it's going to be a big state for Gerald Ford.
