Dear Mr. President,

First let me thank you for the wonderful message you gave at the Prayer Breakfast. I thought it was the best of any President I have ever heard. Your humility and sincerity was extremely apparent.

I also appreciated the lengthy time you gave me that afternoon in the Oval Office. I apologize for staying so long. The time passed so quickly.

I shall certainly keep extremely confidential the matters that you shared with me, and in due course will look forward to hearing more about the plans. In the meantime I suppose we should coordinate all of our plans with John Warner's office.

You are in our prayers daily as you travel throughout the country gaining support for your economic program. I trust the Lord gives you the physical and mental strength for this task that must seem at times beyond human endurance.

With Christian affection to Betty, I am

Most cordially yours,

The President

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 20, 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: DICK CHENEY

The President gave me this letter from Billy Graham concerning the Bi-Centennial on the 4th of July. The President indicated to him (Graham) the possibility of the Queen coming--apparently Willard Marriott had talked to Billy Graham about something on the 4th. I told him I would give it to Marsh and you should see that they (Marsh) gets up a paper on this subject that explains the Bi-Centennial events so we can begin to make some decision and get some order into the planning process on that subject. MARSH has the action. You probably ought to do that through Jerry Jones.
