THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

MEMORANDUM FOR: GENERAL ALEXANDER HAIG

FROM: DAVID J. WIMER

SUBJECT: American Revolution
Bicentennial Advisory Council (PA)

Public Law 93-179 establishes this 25 member Council, stipulating that members "shall be chosen from private life and shall be broadly representative of the nation's people." The legislation requires that the President give "due consideration to the contributions, among others, of the Nation's youth, women, elders, racial and ethnic minorities, artists and craftsmen, and learned professions."

In March, when the President announced his nomination of John Warner as Administrator of ARBA, Warner received the President's blessing to proceed at a deliberate pace in determining the persons whom Warner would recommend for appointment to this advisory council. With guidance and assistance from Anne Armstrong and from my staff, Warner has put together a recommended list of appointees and alternates which I believe is a balanced cross-section of accomplished Americans.

At Warner's urging, I have included a few persons who represent constituencies to which we ordinarily make no appeal. In Warner's view this helps to establish the non-partisan credentials of the council and makes it more credible to a wider segment of the people. At the same time, I did not wish to lose control of this advisory body, which may prove to have symbolic value over the next two years, and have worked closely with Bill Baroody, Sr., to insure that we maintained a line-up which leans the council decisively toward a more conservative concept of the Bicentennial celebration. Armstrong, Warner and Baroody, Sr., agree that the council outlined in Tab A should be able to work as well together as any other group of 25 strong personalities. Each has access to resources and influences which, taken as a whole, can contribute immeasurably to an effective and memorable celebration.

The legislation allows fifteen members to be of the same political party. However, our principal concern was to insure that the council was philosophically bent in the right direction. We do not have as many Republicans as I would have liked to see, but given the constraints of the Bicentennial Act and the need to involve as many people as possible in the spirit of the country's 200th birthday, that was one aim which we could not totally fulfill. In spite of this, I believe the list on balance reflects the President's way of thinking as well as his expressed desire that the Bicentennial be a truly national undertaking.

Brief comments on each recommendee and several alternates follow:

Bicentennial Advisory Council

PRINCIPAL RECOMMENDEES

1. William S. Banowsky, 38, of California (Resume at Tab B) is President of Pepperdine College, a member of the Republican National Committee, host of a Los Angeles T.V. talk show, a columnist for the Herald-Examiner and is a strong supporter of the President. He was seriously considered to be Administrator of the Bicentennial Administration.

☒ Agree
☐ Disagree
2. C. Vann Woodward, 65, of Connecticut (Resume at Tab C), is Sterling Professor of History at Yale. An Arkansas native, Woodward is one of the deans of American history and is probably best known for his work The Origins of the New South for which he won a Bancroft Prize in 1952. He is past editor of "The Comparative Approach to American History."

☒ Agree
☐ Disagree
3. Jacinto Quirarte, 42, of Texas (Resume at Tab D), is Dean of Fine and Applied Arts, University of Texas at San Antonio. An Arizona native, Dr. Quirarte is an internationally recognized scholar specializing in the painting and sculpture of Spanish-Americans. He is a Democrat but has not been active politically. Senator Tower's office has approved of this selection.

☒ Agree
☐ Disagree
4. William J. Baroody, 58, of Virginia (Resume at Tab E), is President of the American Enterprise Institute and has long been a leading light in fostering public understanding of conservative policy positions. A New Hampshire native of Lebanese extraction, Mr. Baroody will serve the council as a strong stabilizing factor. His organization currently sponsors a distinguished Bicentennial lecture series. He is a Republican.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

5. Frank Stanton, 56, of New York (Resume at Tab F), is Chairman of the American National Red Cross. A native of Michigan, Stanton formerly headed the Columbia Broadcasting System and is a trustee of the Rand Corporation, a director of the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, a member of the Business Council and a Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Stanton and the Administration have not always seen eye to eye, especially on Vietnam, but Stanton retains considerable influence and his involvement can be very helpful in the communications arena. He is a Republican.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

6. G. Duncan Bauman, 62, of Missouri (Resume at Tab G), is publisher of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Bauman, a Republican, has contributed greatly to the betterment of his city and has been a staunch and loyal supporter of the President.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

7. Alex Haley, 52, of New York (Resume at Tab H), is the black author of "The Autobiography of Malcolm X" which has now sold four million copies in eight languages. His most recent book "Roots" traces his family tree back to a distant ancestor in Gambia and is the most extensive black family history ever documented. Haley retired from the U.S. Coast Guard in 1959 after 20 years service and as that branch's first Chief Journalist. He is an Independent. His brother George is Assistant Director of Equal Employment Opportunity at USIA and is a Republican.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

8. Jana E. Sutton, 19, of Tennessee (Resume at Tab I), will be a sophomore in the University of Tennessee's College of Agriculture. Miss Sutton was valedictorian of her high school class in Parrottsville and has won numerous farm and home related honors on a national basis. She won, for example, a first place in national poultry judging in Chicago in 1972 and first place in the state's individual livestock judging the same year. She is a promising young leader who is proud of her rural background and agricultural talents. She is a Republican.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

9. Frank J. Shakespeare, Jr., 49, of New York (Resume at Tab J), is Vice Chairman of the Westinghouse Broadcasting Company. He served this Administration as Director of USIA and, prior to that, spent most of his career in television sales posts. He was with CBS-TV from 1965-69. Shakespeare is a Republican.

☐ Agree

☐ Disagree

10. Richard M. Clurman, 50, of New York (Resume at Tab K), is Vice President of TIME, Incorporated. A University of Chicago graduate, Clurman was Chief Correspondent of Time and Life Magazines from 1960-69. He is currently Chairman of the Board of Time-Life Broadcast and of the New York City Center for Music and Drama. Clare Boothe Luce, Bill Buckley, Len Garment and Peter Flanigan have all recommended to Anne Armstrong that Clurman be included. He is an Independent.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

11. David L. Hale, 33, of Oklahoma (Resume at Tab L), is the recently installed president of the United States Jaycees. On three occasions, the President has indicated his desire to have this service organization represented on the Council. Rick Clayton, the current Jaycees Chairman, is now running for State office in Texas. This candidacy eliminated Clayton from consideration. Nevertheless, the selection of Hale is preferable in the key respect that the Jaycees president has far more control over the resources of this 320,000 member organization. Hale is a conservative Democrat in his native Arkansas. The Republican state chairman there has expressed his support for Hale's appointment.

Agree

Disagree

12. Harry Van Arsdale, Jr., 68, of New York (Resume at Tab M), has been President of the New York Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO, since 1957. He is very active in the civil affairs of New York City and is recommended for this appointment by Secretary Brennan and Don Rodgers. He is a Democrat and a supporter of the President.

Agree

Disagree

13. James Q. Wilson, 43, of Massachusetts (Resume at Tab N), is chairman of the Department of Government at Harvard. Born in Colorado, Wilson has gained well-deserved recognition for his work on such subjects as campus unrest, urban politics and police behavior. Baroody, Sr., is especially high on Wilson and believes he would be an excellent chairman of the council, who is, incidentally, elected by the membership. Wilson was formerly chairman of the National Advisory Council for Drug Abuse Prevention.

Agree

Disagree

14. Anna Chennault, 49, of Washington, D.C. (Resume at Tab O), is Vice President, International Affairs of the Flying Tiger Line, Inc. A well-known conservative Republican, Mrs. Chennault has received extraordinary Hill support for this appointment. Born in Peiping, she is now a U.S. citizen and is a very active writer and lecturer.

Agree

Disagree

15. Maya Angelou, 40, of California (Resume at Tab P), is a black author and poet. She has written two best-selling books as well as a ten-part TV series on African traditions in American life. She has toured Europe and Africa for the State Department in "Porgy and Bess" and was also active for awhile with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Angelou's works reflect her experiences with the seamy side of life and her struggles to rise above it. Warner and Garment particularly believe this side of our national life should also be represented.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

16. Michael C. Curb, 29, of California (Resume at Tab Q), is head of Mike Curb Productions and a former President of MGM Records. Born in Georgia, Curb entered the commercial music field while still in his teens and had registered considerable financial success by the time he was 21. After acquiring MGM Records in 1969, he took a strong stand against drug use, a position not then popular in the record industry. In 1973 he produced over half of the entertainment for the President's Inaugural Concerts. He is a Republican.

☒ Agree

☐ Disagree

17. Lady Bird Johnson, 61, of Texas (Resume at Tab R), is the former First Lady. She has contributed much to the country, particularly through beautification projects. She is a Democrat.

She is a Democrat and was recently appointed to the National News Council which monitors media activities.

Agree

Disagree

20. Irving S. Shapiro, 58, of Delaware (Resume at Tab U), is Chairman of the Board and chief executive officer of the DuPont Company. The son of Jewish Lithuanian immigrants who settled in Minnesota, Shapiro served with the Justice Department from 1943-51. During that time he served as an assistant prosecutor in the trial of eleven top leaders of the U.S. Communist Party. He joined DuPont's legal department in 1951. Shapiro is an Independent.

21. Ann Hawkes Hutton, 65, of Pennsylvania (Resume at Tab V), is chairman of the board of the Washington Crossing Foundation and is the only holdover recommended from the Bicentennial Commission. She was the first woman to receive the Freedom Leadership Award of the Freedoms Foundation and has also been honored by the DAR. Mrs. Hutton is an active Republican and held key state campaign posts in support of the President in 1968 and 1972. Hugh Scott strongly backs her.
