MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: William E. Timmons
SUBJECT: Rep. Don Riegle (D-Mich)

Don called to express his continuing admiration and support for you.

He is most interested in the signing ceremony. For eight years Don has been pushing the Community School concept originally sponsored by Harding Mott of Flint, Michigan. He reports you co-sponsored a bill at one time. The Education bill provides for this concept.

Specifically, Riegle asks:

- 1. To be invited to the ceremony.
- 2. To receive a signing pen.
- 3. To have Harding Mott invited as a special guest.

I promised to raise his requests with you personally.

SUBJECT:

H. R. 69, ESEA Signing Ceremony

I understand that a Signing Ceremony is tentatively scheduled for next Wednesday.

Attached is a list of possible House members and staff invitees as suggested by Minority Legislative Assistant, Chris Cross, who did most of the work on the bill for the Minority.

You will note he went a bit overboard on staff, going down to legislative assistants and secretaries. I have placed asterisks before those whom I would recommend for invitees if staff is to be included.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DAVID PARKER
FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT: Pension Reform

Sen. Jacob Javits (R-NY) is the father of the Pension Reform bill and urges a signing ceremony on Labor Day. He is adamant against a ceremony this week because there is too much congressional activity by the President and this major accomplishment will be lost.

I, too, favor a Labor Day signing as symbolic.

Please advise.

P.S. I understand bill may not get to WH until after Friday because of technical changes. bt

FROM: William E. Timmons
SUBJECT: Cost of Living Council

The House today adopted the Senate version of the monitoring agency, thereby avoiding a conference. The vote was 369-27.

If we can get the enrolled bill by Thursday, you might want to sign this bill along with the Housing-Better Communities.

All the bipartisan leaders and full House and Senate Banking Committees are invited to the Housing event and they should also be invited for any Cost of Living signing ceremony.

SUBJECT:

The Speaker

Mike Reed, of the Speaker's Office, said the Speaker was requesting we check the possibility of a signing ceremony for two conference reports passed by the House yesterday and cleared for Presidential signature:

1. H.R. 11864, Solar Heating and Cooling Demonstration Act, passed by 402-4.
2. H.R. 14920, Geothermal Energy Research, Development and Demonstration Act of 1974, passed by voice vote.

Both of these bills are out of House Science and Astronautics and I believe the Speaker is responding to a request by Rep. Mike McCormack (D-Wash), a member of the Committee.
