MEMORANDUM FOR: JACK MARSH

FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS

SUBJECT: State Dinner
Friday, August 16, 1974

Because of the significance of the President's first State Dinner, I believe it important that the President invite the congressional protocol list rather than his best friends. Once the formal group is covered, I will recommend Members who may be closer to the First Family for future events.

MEMORANDUM FOR: GEN. ALEXANDER HAIG
FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT: Friday State Dinner

I understand the President adopted my congressional list for his 1st State Dinner and added the bi-partisan whips. Checking with Lucy Winchester, however, somebody overlooked Robert Griffin and I asked Lucy to include him.

Also, I have not seen the after dinner guest list yet. Can I see a copy? This office should call the Members to explain the late invitation and explain why they are being invited only to the after dinner dancing.

Also, there will certainly be regrets to dinner. I would like to recommend at least several replacements. We have outstanding commitments to some Republicans I feel compelled to honor.

Please advise soonest.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DAVID N. PARKER
FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT: Retirees Dinner

Reference my schedule proposal of August 12 for subject event. I understand this has now been approved for October 3rd.

While the list has 44 retirees on it, additional names may have to be added as primary elections are held in September.

In addition to retiring Members, we have included incumbents who were defeated in re-election primaries as well as Members defeated in primaries for other offices (Senate and Governor). We are not including Members who have won nomination for other offices, however, because the dinner could be used by them to show Presidential support for their campaigns.

I recommend that the full bipartisan leadership be invited except for GOP campaign chairmen (Michel and Brock). This would add 19 Members -- for a grand total in the neighborhood of 65. Therefore, I suggest spouses not be invited and that the event be black tie.

Once details are worked out, invitations should be extended as soon as possible to avoid potential Member conflicts.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DAVID PARKER
FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT: Retirees Dinner

For legislative reasons, I hope quick consideration can be given my earlier proposal for a WH dinner honoring all retiring Members of Congress.

If this event is to pay dividends, it should be scheduled as close to Congress' return on September 11th as possible.

Can do?

Retiring Congressmen

Those GOP Members of the House who are retiring at the close of the 93rd Congress are envious of their colleagues who were photographed with the President yesterday.

The retirees would like individual photos with the President as keepsakes.

Furthermore, we will still need their votes between now and January 3, 1975.

What think?

I have requested a special

and hope this can be done
