CALIFORNIA

George Miller

(D Calif. - 7th)

Election: Succeeded Democratic Rep. Jerome R. Waldie (1966-75), who ran for governor

Profession: Lawyer

Born: May 17, 1945, Richmond, Calif.

Home: Martinez, Calif.

Religion: Roman Catholic

Education: San Francisco State College, A.B. 1968; University of California Law School, J.D. 1972

Previous Offices: Contra Costa County Democratic Central Committee, 1968-74

Unsuccessful Campaigns: California Senate, 1969

Military Record: None

Memberships: California Bar Association, Common Cause

Family: Married Cynthia Caccavo, 1963; 2 children

Career: Miller is the son of a prominent California state senator, George Miller Jr., who died in 1969 after 23 years in the legislature. The younger Miller won the Democratic nomination that year to succeed his father, but lost the general election. Only 23 at the time, he went to work as legislative counsel to George Moscone, Democratic floor leader in the senate. During the 1974 congressional campaign, Miller cited his work with Moscone as valuable training, telling voters that he personally drafted bills to end conflict of interest among government officials and stimulate a reduction in interest rates for home buyers. Miller will replace Democratic Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, who ran unsuccessfully for governor.

Norman Yoshio Mineta

(D Calif. - 13th)

Election: Succeeded Republican Rep. Charles S. Gubser (1953-75), who retired

Profession: Insurance agent

Born: Nov. 12, 1931, San Jose, Calif.

Home: San Jose

Religion: Methodist

Education: University of California, B.S. 1953

Previous Offices: San Jose City Council, 1967-71; mayor, 1971-75

Unsuccessful Campaigns: None

Military Record: Army Intelligence, 1954-56; Army Reserves, 1956-67

Memberships: National Association of Independent Insurance Agents, Japanese American Citizens League, Urban Coalition, National League of Cities

Family: Married May Hinoki, 1961; 2 children

Career: Mineta, who is the first person of Japanese ancestry to represent a district in the continental United States, ran his campaign on a program of political reform. He made a full financial disclosure, supported public financing of campaigns, and advocated open meetings of congressional committees. A member of a prominent business family in San Jose, Mineta has been a strong vote-getter since he first ran for the city council in 1969. Even though the district is less than 2 per cent Japanese, Mineta won 52 per cent in a seven-way election for the council, 62 per cent in a 15-way race for mayor in 1971 and more than 55 per cent in his 1974 election in a district that had gone heavily Republican in the past.

John H. Krebs

(D Calif. - 17th)

Election: Defeated Republican Rep. Robert B. (Bob) Mathias (1967-75)

Profession: Lawyer

Born: Dec. 17, 1926, Berlin, Germany.

Home: Fresno, Calif.

Religion: Jewish

Education: University of California, A.B. 1950; Hastings College of Law, LL.B. 1957

Previous Offices: Fresno County Planning Commission, 1965-69; Chairman, Fresno County Democratic Central Committee, 1965-66; chairman, Fresno County Board of Supervisors, 1970-75

Unsuccessful Campaigns: None

Military Record: Army, 1952-54

Memberships: American Cancer Society, Fresno Mental Health Board

Family: Wife, Hanna; married 1956; 2 children

Career: Krebs, a German-Jewish immigrant who lived for a time in Israel before coming to the United States, was an extremely popular local political figure in Fresno who had little trouble winning election to the Board of Supervisors from a predominantly Republican district. He is considered a moderate, similar in outlook to the Democrats who represent nearby central valley districts, John J. McFall and B. F. Sisk. While on the board of supervisors, Krebs gained considerable attention fighting the uncontrolled growth of housing subdivisions in the Fresno area. Redistricting was a considerable asset to Krebs in his campaign against Mathias; the 1974 election was fought within the lines of a newly approved district map that removed Republican areas favorable to Mathias in the past.

Rep. Thompson Seers Into the Future

By REP. FRANK THOMPSON

MY REGULAR READERS are accustomed to receiving my predictions at the New Year, but this year when I consulted by crystal ball for a glimpse into 1975, it seemed to be clouded by a fine white mist. As the mist slowly cleared, I realized it was just the spray from President Ford's skis. It was July and he was taking a ten-day breather at the Northern White House in Nome, Alaska. However, I gave the ball a slight kick and this is what it revealed for the full year:

January: President Ford rejects armed intervention as a means of protecting oil imports; Selective Service sends draft notices to 25,000 EXXON officials. CIA throws open-house party.

February: Catfish Hunter offers to buy Oakland Athletics; Charlie Finley orders carload of antacid tablets. Earl Butz applies for membership in Knights of Columbus.

March: NBC announces it has signed John Lindsay as star of new TV series called "Fun City," a program that raises the question "whether a former member of Congress can find peace and happiness as the mayor of a crime-infested, pollution-filled, overcrowded, almost-bankrupt mining town out west."

April: The New York Times reports that CIA has infiltrated the Boy Scouts; President Ford, vacationing in the Swiss Alps, appoints commission to investigate.

May: Florida beachcomber finds 18½ minute piece of tape in the surf at Key Biscayne; Federico Fellini signs Earl Butz for comic relief role in new film.

June: As unemployment increases President Ford names economic adviser Alan Greenspan to run job training program for out-of-work stockbrokers. Treasury replaces gold at Fort Knox with sugar.

July: New fad hits California beaches as students discover bathing suits. Kissinger denies that invasion
