Attached is a list of Members I recommend be invited to accompany the President to Chicago on Monday for the VFW Convention.

Since there are eight guest seats this works out comfortably and ground movement will not be difficult.

The group consists of 4 Republicans and 4 Democrats: the Chairmen of both Senate and House Veterans Committees, the ranking Republicans on both panels, the second senior GOP Member of the Senate group and second senior Member of House group. The guests are compatible; Rep. Daniel is past National Commander of the American Legion and Rep. Arends is the GOP Whip, from Illinois, and a close personal friend of the President. The group is balanced and rational.

I strongly disagree with your instruction to add Oliver Meadows and Frank Brissi to the Chicago trip. Both are friends of mine and certainly are most expert in veterans legislation. However, the President should not be negotiating with staff. This mere inclusion of staff - as competent as Ollie and Frank are - could be insulting to the Chairmen. Also, what will Ranking Republicans think if Minority Councils are overlooked. (This is a Republican Administration!)

You should be aware that a number of GOP Members from Illinois - George O'Brien, Sam Young and Bob McCleary, for example - have requested to accompany the President and we had to turn them down because of space limitations.

Frankly, there is just not room even if the above arguments were not valid.

The President, when he was Vice President, had accepted the engagement and Parris was counting on his participation. Stan is marginal and faces a tough battle to hold his seat.

I recognize the demands on the President's schedule but this is a local event and an exception could be justified since Mr. Ford had already accepted.

Please reconsider.

SUGGESTED PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS FOR SENATE APPEARANCE

I wanted to stop by today just to say hello and to officially inaugurate Pennsylvania Avenue as a two-way street.

It's good to be back in a chamber where so much of America's history has been written. One of the greatest privileges of my life was to preside here. Although my tenure was short, it was certainly long enough to convince me that this is still one of the world's greatest legislative bodies.

In the days and months ahead, all of us must draw upon the great traditions of the Senate. Our job is to restore the people's faith in American government. No single man or woman can do it alone. We have to do it together.

As Governor Rockefeller said yesterday, we must deal with some hard realities. We are not always going to be on the same side of the fence on every issue. That doesn't matter. It only matters that we are all on the side of the best interests of America -- and I know we are.

In this regard I want to thank the Senate for its outstanding efforts to meet me half way on a number of legislative issues: the creation of a new organization to monitor inflation; action to hold unnecessary government spending; and the enactment of several worthwhile bills such as the housing, education and pension reform bills.

I would be remiss if I didn't take advantage of this captive audience to make a pitch for your support of the Defense Budget. I know the temptation to cut military spending, but I urge you to maintain sufficient appropriations to enable me to maintain the peace through an adequate national defense program.

I appreciate the opportunity to renew my request for cooperation, to pledge again my commitment to work closely with you, and most especially, to personally thank each of you for your kind expressions of support.

Thank you.

C

SUGGESTED PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS FOR HOUSE APPEARANCE

After 10 days of our "honeymoon" and recalling the old adage "out of sight - out of mind", I just wanted to drop by my old home to say hello.

As most of you know, my wife and I packed up our belongings and moved across the Potomac earlier this week. We were reminded of what Harry Truman said when he moved out of the White House in 1953: "If I had known how much packing I'd have to do, I'd have run again."

It's a beautiful house down there, one of the most beautiful in the world. But let me say that our affections for the White House will never surpass our love for the House of Representatives and the fine men and women who serve here.

All of you have been generous in your support in the last few days. You have been generous in your advice. And you have been generous in your good will.

I have asked your help in the past. I ask it now. This is standard procedure for a new President, of course. But I am not making a pro forma gesture when I ask your help. You who know, and that is most of you, know I don't believe in gestures. When I ask your help, I do so because I want it, and I need it.

Together we have a big job ahead of us. I emphasize the word "together". For if we, together, do not do the work that must be done -- who will? And if we do not, if we cannot work together to do the work that must be done -- then how will it, how can it be done?

In this regard I want to thank you especially, Mr. Speaker, and the House of Representatives for its outstanding efforts to meet me halfway on a number of legislative issues: creation of a new organization to monitor inflation; on action to hold down unnecessary government spending; enactment of worthwhile programs -- such as Housing and Education -- and on numerous other pieces of legislation.

I will be coming back, asking for support on issues from time to time. I trust you will be coming downtown to ask my help from time to time.

As we do the work of our country in the coming days, let us remember that in politics we can compromise on issues and still be true to our basic principles. Let that simple truth be the touchstone by which we test our actions. If we do that, we can be confident of the future, and confident of our own roles in shaping that future.

Dear Max:

Thank you for your letter of August 16, explaining that President Ford will be unable to honor his commitment to appear in Indianapolis in behalf of Mayor Lugar and myself this fall. Although I am disappointed that recent events have dictated this decision, I can certainly understand why the President must now decline the invitation. At the same time, however, I wanted to express my hope that, if there is a possibility he might campaign in the fall, our request will be considered.

As you probably know, we have a good chance to unseat Senator Birch Bayh because Dick Lugar, the Mayor of Indianapolis, is mounting a tremendous campaign against him. Furthermore, we have about an even chance of retaining my Congressional seat in my campaign against the former incumbent, Andy Jacobs, who is running against me again. It would be a tremendous advantage to us if the President could appear in central Indiana in behalf of the candidacy of Mayor Lugar and myself as well as other Republican candidates at the Congressional, state and local levels.

I know how busy his schedule is and how full his calendar must be, but if there is any flexibility and you are trying to establish priorities on his time for a few campaign appearances, I hope you will

SUBJECT: Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex)

The Appropriations chairman called today to remind me that the President - when he was Veep - had agreed to be present at the unveiling of Mahon's official committee portrait. Unfortunately, Mrs. Mahon became ill and the event was cancelled.

Committee chairmen traditionally make a big production out of these ceremonies, and with Mr. Mahon's popularity and power I'm sure this one will be a major congressional "happening".

Therefore, I recommend the President agree to participate and authorize my office to work with the chairman for an appropriate date between September 11 - October 11, 1974.

Please advise.

You and Dave Parker indicated the President may accept an invitation to participate in the Audie Murphy Memorial Dedication in San Antonio, Texas. You asked me to check with Rep. Olin "Tiger" Teague on details.

Indeed, Tiger is the moving force behind this event which is tentatively scheduled for December 8th. A life size bronze statue will be unveiled at that time. Army Secretary Callaway has agreed to participate in the event although it has not been announced publicly.

Tiger can change the date to accommodate the President but much prefers it be after Election Day in November or December.

Dear Mr. Timmons:

This is to provide you with information in support of the invitation to President Ford by Representative John N. Happy Camp to participate in the dedication of a three million gallons per day brackish water desalting plant on the Washita River near Clinton, Oklahoma.

The desalting plant will provide potable water from brackish water stored in the Foss Reservoir for the cities of Clinton, Bessie, Cordell, and Hobart, Oklahoma, at a cost of only 35 cents per 1,000 gallons. This plant utilizes technology developed by the Office of Saline Water. The construction cost of $1,964,000 is partially financed by a loan and grant from the Department of Housing and Urban Development. It is the largest desalting plant yet constructed in the United States. It will provide additional experience and technology to enable us to tap vast reserves of brackish waters throughout the drought-stricken middle west.

This plant will also provide operating data to assist the design of a 100 million gallons per day plant to be located near Yuma, Arizona, to provide a solution to a Colorado River salinity problem at the U.S.-Mexican border.

A date for the dedication can be set anytime between the middle of September and preferably before the November elections.

Dear Bill:

In my reelection campaign, my committee had placed a great deal of our expectations for fund raising on a September 24th breakfast in Lincoln, Nebraska with Gerald Ford . . . arrangements for which were made when he was Vice President. Naturally, Bill, I am completely understanding now that this event has been canceled.

If you would take a personal interest in providing me with a speaker for such a Lincoln event I would be deeply appreciative. The September 24th date doesn't matter. We've destroyed our tickets, canceled our auditorium rental, etc. Any date would be all right.

First, would you explore if there is any possibility of President Ford appearing at some date before the election? If not, can you secure a high-powered substitute for me? Secretary of State Kissinger has made one or two political appearances. If he were available, the financial returns would be phenomenal, but I'm afraid I understand the facts of life on this.

Bill, thank you so much for your cooperation.

The President may elect to invite Members of Congress to travel on this trip with him. There are several options:

I. NO MEMBERS

Since the event is international and falls during the week the President may wish to avoid problems connected with having Members accompany him. If he chooses this option, Sen. Griffin would want to return with the President and this could be handled without difficulty.

II. SMALL GROUP

I believe because of the nature of this event we could get by with asking only the two Michigan Senators - Griffin and Hart - to travel on Air Force One.

III. FULL CONTINGENT

If the President wants the full treatment, invitations would have to be extended to eleven Members. He certainly would want to cover the Republicans from Detroit's suburbs.

STATE

1. Sen. Robert Griffin (R)
2. Sen. Phil Hart (D)

DETROIT

|----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 3. Rep. John Conyers (I)   | 6. Rep. John Dingell (16)     |
| 4. Rep. Charles Diggs (13) | 7. Rep. Martha Griffiths (17) |
| 5. Rep. Lucien Nedzi (14)  |                               |

ADJOINING DISTRICTS

- 8. Rep. Bob Huber (18)
- 9. Rep. Marv Esch (2)
- 10. Rep. Bill Broomfield (19)
- 11. Rep. Jim O'Hara (12)

IV. SPECIAL INTEREST

I cannot recommend invitations to energy-related Congressmen because of confusion over jurisdiction and protocol problems (obviously Sen. Jackson would qualify). However, I have a special request from Rep. Craig Hosmer to accompany the President to this event. Craig - a personal friend of the President - wants to discuss atomic energy in which he is an expert.

Guidance please.

FROM:                       WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT:                   Rep. Del Latta (R-Ohio)

Rep. Latta called me today to urge the President participate in the dedication of a new library in Bowling Green, Ohio. The sponsors would like to schedule this for Sunday, October 13, 1974, but are flexible to suit the President.

Mr. Latta is a good friend and supporter of the President and urges this event as a special favor to him. It is a civic event and not political although Del would, of course, benefit from the trip.

If this is a good possibility for October 13 or another date, Mr. Latta will get us the facts on the new, high library building.

Please advise soonest.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DEAN BURCH
FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS
SUBJECT: Rep. "Bud" Shuster (R-Pa)

I sent you last week a note with request from the President of the House GOP Freshmen for the President to do a prop stop in his district to help his re-election prospects. Have you had a chance to review that request?

Now comes Bud suggesting that if the President can't make it could the First Lady help him out. His campaign emphasizes his family - wife and 5 children - and Betty Ford would fit in nicely.

As always, I promised to bring this to your attention.

My own recommendation is that assistance be given to Shuster if at all possible.

FROM: MAX L. FRIEDERSDORF m. f.
SUBJECT: M.C. Hamilton Fish (R-NY)

Congressman Fish has recommended a Presidential stop in Westchester County (NY) if the President plans to campaign in the East.

Ham reports that we have an excellent opportunity in this "open" District where the GIO candidate, Stephens, is taking on former Congressman Richard Ottinger.

Mr. Fish describes our candidate as young, attractive and conservative.

Ottinger actually lives in Representative Peyser's District and this is an issue in the race.

If there is interest in scheduling such a stop let me know and we will be pleased to have Mr. Fish call you or check for further details.
