MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. FORD

SUBJECT: Visit of Her Majesty Margrethe II Queen
of Denmark and His Royal Highness Prince
Henrik, May 10, 1976

Although Queen Margrethe II will be coming to the United States on a private visit in May, we have been informed that she will be presenting a porcelain coffee set to you. Made by the Royal Porcelain Factory, it consists of six cups and saucers and is in a Bicentennial theme.

I would like to suggest that you reciprocate by presenting a Malcolm Moran sculpture to her. Mr. Moran would like to donate his "Boy With Boat" to you for this purpose. (A photograph is attached.) The Queen is the mother of two young boys and enjoys sailing; therefore, this piece seems particularly appropriate.

FOR: MRS. FORD

FROM: MARIA DOWNS M

There has been a change in your table seating. We have substituted Princess Elisabeth for Mrs. Hansen. Princess Elisabeth is a first cousin of the Queen; she is the daughter of Prince Knud, brother of the late King Frederik IX. The Princess is an archivist at the Danish Embassy in Washington and has been here for three years.

Please note the change in Mrs. Hansen's position at your table.

Thank you.

*The Mrs. Hansen who was substituted was the wife of the owner

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. FORD

SUBJECT: Visit of Her Majesty Margrethe II Queen
of Denmark and His Royal Highness Prince
Henrik, May 10, 1976

Although Queen Margrethe II will be coming to the United States on a private visit in May, we have been informed that she will be presenting a porcelain coffee set to you. Made by the Royal Porcelain Factory, it consists of six cups and saucers and is in a Bicentennial theme.

I would like to suggest that you reciprocate by presenting a Malcolm Moran sculpture to her. Mr. Moran would like to donate his "Boy With Boat" to you for this purpose. (A photograph is attached.) The Queen is the mother of two young boys and enjoys sailing; therefore, this piece seems particularly appropriate.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mrs. Ford —

Enclosed is proposed guest list for Queen Margrethe's luncheon — it does not include your input — the President has sent word that he has no suggestions — so if you want to go heavy — please do —

Is it okay with you if
this luncheon is set for 12:30 rather than 1:00 to ease the Queen's schedule? —

Maria —

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary to Mrs. Ford

The President and Mrs. Ford are hosting a luncheon honoring Queen Margrethe II of Denmark and Prince Henrik Tuesday, May 11 at 12:30 p.m. The Queen is on a private visit to honor the American bicentennial.

Mrs. Ford has selected a spring garden theme, reflecting the Danish love of flowers. One of the favorite Danish flowers, freesia, will be featured in the table bouquets of iris, tulips, violets, lilies of the valley, miniature carnations, bachelor buttons and broom. These informal, free-style bouquets of wild and cultivated flowers will be in baskets. Azaleas and roses in shades of red and white will decorate the foyer and the cross-hall to honor the red and white of the Danish flag.

The ficus trees on the State Floor will have ivy planted at the bases. Ivy will also be used around the napkins along with a spray of lilies of the valley.

The round tables will be draped with tableclothes of yellow. Tables will be set with the Johnson china, the King Charles silver and Morgantown crystal.

Flowers in the State Floor Parlors will be matched to the historic period of the rooms. For example, urns will be filled with flowers in the Red Room in keeping with early 19th century custom. These decorations are patterned after paintings from the era.

Mrs. Jody Shoemaker of the Winthur Museum in Delaware and Ms. Jeanne Shanks of the Philadelphia Museum of Art have donated their personal time to coordinate the decorations. Both specialize in historic flower arranging, which matches the flowers, containers and style of arrangement to the period of the room.

Included among the guests are many Americans of Danish descent.

The menu: Lobster with Remoulade Sauce; Roast Saddle of Lamb; Almond Potatoes; Parmesan Asparagus; Bibb Lettuce Salad; Danish Bleu Cheese Mousse; Glace Praline; Petits Fours; Demitasse.

Wines: Dry Creek Dry Chenin Blanc; Chappellet Cabernet Sauvignon; Schramsberg Blanc de Blancs.
