WASHINGTON

VISIT TO THE
WASHINGTON NATIONAL CATHEDRAL

THURSDAY - JULY 8, 1976

Departure: 11:00 A.M.

From: Terry O'Donnell

TOD

BACKGROUND

You and Mrs. Ford will depart the South Grounds by car at 11:00 a.m. en route the Washington National Cathedral to await the arrival of The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh, then proceed to the Nave to view the placement of the St. Peter and St. Paul Seal and attend a Service of Dedication.

After 83 years, the Nave and side aisles of the Washington National Cathedral have been completed. To celebrate this achievement, you and The Queen and Mrs. Ford and The Duke of Edinburgh will dedicate the building known officially as the Cathedral Church of St. Peter and St. Paul. (See attached photographs).

The latest accomplishment was the completion of the Cathedral's third and final rose window which was installed earlier this year. The window, 26 ft. in diameter, is the work of Virginia Artist Rowan LeCompte who was enthralled during a chance visit to the Cathedral when he was 14 years old and decided to teach himself the techniques of stained glass.

Washington Cathedral is the only traditional Gothic cathedral currently under construction in the U.S. If all goes as scheduled, the entire structure will be finished in 1980.

11:43 a.m.

You depart Oval Office and proceed to Diplomatic Reception Room where Mrs. Ford will join you.

Following announcement and "Ruffles and Flourishes", you and Mrs. Ford proceed out the Diplomatic Reception Room entrance, cross the driveway, and take your positions facing the entrance to the Diplomatic Reception Room.

11:46 a.m.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and His Royal Highness The Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, arrive and are introduced to you and Mrs. Ford by Chief of Protocol Henry E. Catto, Jr. You in turn introduce them to Secretary and Mrs. Henry A. Kissinger and General and Mrs. George S. Brown.

You and The Queen move to the platform and stand facing the troops with The Queen on your right. Mrs. Ford and The Duke of Edinburgh move to right of platform.

11:48 a.m.

National Anthems and 21-gun salute.

Inspection of troops - you and The Queen guided by Commander of Troops. She should be on the left closest to the troops. The Troop Commander is in the middle.

NOTE: Your cue for escorting The Queen down to the Commander of Troops to inspect the troops will be the Commander's report, "Sir, the Honor Guard is formed."

Inspection begins at the front of the band and proceeds along the front rank of troops. You render a salute when passing in front of the Colors.

At the left flank of the troops, the Inspection Party turns and proceeds toward the platform

You escort The Queen onto the platform and take your original positions facing the troops for the Marine Drum and Bugle Corps "pass in review."

11:55 a.m.

After the Commander of Troops reports, "Sir, this concludes the Honors", you usher The Queen to stand adjacent to you at the podium while you deliver welcoming remarks.

THE WHITE HOUSE
OFFICE OF THE PRESS SECRETARY TO MRS. FORD

Bob Hope will entertain at the White House Wednesday, July 7, at the State Dinner honoring Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and His Royal Highness Prince Phillip, Duke of Edinburgh.

Hope, who was born in England, began his career in vaudeville with a dancing act, but soon after began his solo comedy routine. He debuted on Broadway in 1927 and began his radio career on Rudy Vallee's Thursday Night Show in 1934.

Hope appeared in his first feature film in 1938 and has since starred in more than 50 movies. Last fall, he celebrated his 25th year as a television performer.

Hope has received more than one thousand awards for his professional and humanitarian achievements. Among them are the Congressional Gold Medal, the Medal of Freedom and the Medal of Merit. He has been awarded 34 honorary degrees.

The comedian's current plans include another "road" picture with Bing Crosby in England, the completion of his eighth book and personal appearances around the United States.

Hope entertained Britain's Royal Family at command performances in 1947, 1954, 1962 and 1967. In 1969, he began the "Around the World Christmas Tour" with a preview of the show at the White House. He also entertained at the White House dinner for the Vietnam prisoners of war in 1973.

He and his wife, Dolores, have been married since 1934. They have four adopted children and four grandchildren. They make their home in North Hollywood, California.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 20, 1976

TO: MRS. FORD

FROM: MARIA DOWNS

Protocol Office at State Department called my office inquiring about the dress for the dinner that you and the President will be giving in honor of the Queen and Prince Phillip. The British Embassy has told State that Her Majesty would like to know what the dress will be so she can have her dress made for the occasion.

It has been our policy to not have White Tie dinners from Memorial Day through Labor Day. The main reason for this is because White Tie would be too warm during that time of the year. Vogue, Amy Vanderbilt, Modern Manners and Emily Post place no restrictions as to what time of the year White Tie is or is not acceptable.

The British Embassy has also informed State Department that in Great Britain they have started wearing decorations with Black Tie during the summer months.

We have the following options to take into consideration before arriving at a decision:

1. If our dinner is White Tie, we will have to have the dinner in a place where the air conditioning is good -- outdoors could present some problems.
2. If our dinner is Black Tie, we will then be confronted with the question of do we copy the English once again and start wearing decorations with Black Tie for summer events of White Tie merit or do we stand by American social tradition and send our invitations for Black Tie and, if the Queen and Prince wish, Her Majesty may wear her Tiara and His Royal Highness may wear his decorations.

The Social Entertainments Office has checked their files as far back as their records indicate the dress and they have not been able to find that there has ever been a White Tie event during the Memorial Day - Labor Day time period. Also, the last time the Queen visited this country, the event was White Tie but it was on October 17, 1957.
