Dear Betty -

Having "grown up"
with a "First Lady"
has elevated me in the esteem of my offspring. My son Bob
was at Gordon-Conwell
last year with your son — small world.

We missed you
but there's always the 50th to "shoot" for.

Best wishes,
Eric Livingston

Dear Betty,

This represents only a few of the 78 graduates who came to the reunion.
These notes were collected at a small party given by Mary Ferguson Barker
after the reunion dinner had broken up. I wish we had started it sooner so that everyone could have signed. Though I was a member of the class of
'38 and not '36, I'm sneaking in my good wishes here for both of you, before passing it on to George and Miriam.

I have admired your courage and your ability to speak your mind.

Sincerely,
