A COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness;
let us be large in thought, in words,
in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face-- without self-pity, and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things;
make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight forward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know
the great, common human heart of us all;
and O, Lord God, let us forget not to be kind!

--Mary Stewart

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB
OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, INC.

BY-LAWS

Revised 1974

By-laws of the Business and Professional Women's Club
of the District of Columbia, Inc.
(Revised 1974)

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Business and Professional Women's Club of the District of Columbia, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

The objectives of this organization shall be:

- To elevate the standards for women in business and the professions;
- to promote the interests of business and professional women;
- to bring about a spirit of cooperation among business and professional women;
- to extend opportunities to business and professional women through education along the lines of industrial, scientific, and vocational activities.

ARTICLE III - EMBLEM

The emblem shall be in the form of a circle in which the symbols of the Nike, Scroll, Torch, Wand, and Ship of Commerce are imposed above the initials NFBPWC.

ARTICLE IV - POLICY

Section 1. This Club shall be non-sectarian, non-partisan, and non-profit.

Section 2. The policies and procedures of the State and National Federations as applicable shall in every case also be the policies and procedures of this club.

ARTICLE V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership in this club shall be held by (a) women actively engaged in business or in the professions and (b) retired women who became members while actively engaged, and provided dues have been paid for each year since retirement.

Section 2. At least seventy-five percent of the club membership shall be actively engaged in business or in the professions. This club cannot have less than ten active members and cannot be an integral part of any other national organization.

Section 3. Membership in this club shall be all inclusive for membership in the (a) District of Columbia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, (b) the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., and (c) International Federation of Business and Professional Women.

Section 4. Applications for membership, endorsed by two members in good standing and accompanied by dues, shall be presented to the Chairman of the Membership Committee. After approval by a majority of the Membership Committee, the application shall be presented to the Board of Directors. Upon approval by a majority of the Board of Directors, the applicant shall be enrolled as a member of the club.

(ART. V - MEMBERSHIP cont'd)

Section 5. There cannot be any auxiliary or other members in any way associated with the club who are not listed in the roster submitted with dues, and for whom State and National dues have not been paid.

Section 6. A member is in good standing only when local, State, and National dues are paid.

Section 7. A continuing member is one whose dues are paid in the same club through the close of the previous fiscal year.

Section 8. A member whose dues are paid for the current fiscal year may transfer her membership to another club, if accepted by that club. Criteria for accepting transferring members are: (a) credentials presented from club of original membership; (b) by-law provisions of the club affecting eligibility for membership.

Section 9. If the transferring member is accepted, duplicate National dues shall not be paid for the same fiscal year. State dues for a member transferring to this club from another State Federation shall be four dollars and ten cents ($4.10), unless such transfer is made after December 1, in which case the dues shall be two dollars and five cents ($2.05). These dues shall include a subscription to Capital Women.

Section 10. The transferring member retains the current year's membership card from her original club.

Section 11. The transferring member will be counted with the club where the National dues are paid.

ARTICLE VI - DUES

Section 1. The annual dues shall be $18.00 per capita, payable in advance. The dues shall include $4.10 dues for the State Federation (which dues shall include a subscription to Capital Women); and $6.00 for the National Federation (which dues shall include a subscription to National Business Woman, 28¢ for International Federation dues, and a gift of 50¢ to the Business and Professional Women's Foundation). Ten percent of the annual National dues shall be used for a Funded Reserve for the maintenance, preservation, and/or expansion of the National headquarters.

Section 2. Dues are payable upon application for membership: $18.00 during the period June 1 through November 30; $9.00 (for new members) for the period December 1 through May 31; and on or before June 1 thereafter annually. Dues cover the National Federation's fiscal year which is from June 1 to May 31. The club's fiscal year shall be from June 1 to May 31, inclusive.

Section 3. Any member whose dues remain unpaid as of June 1 shall be notified in writing of this delinquency. Dues paid on and after June 1 shall be accompanied by an additional fifty cents. If dues remain unpaid as of the close of business June 30, the delinquent member shall be dropped from the rolls.

Section 4. A member dropped from the rolls may be reinstated during the same fiscal year upon the payment of a full year's dues plus penalties. A member who resigns after payment of dues may be reinstated within the same fiscal year upon the majority vote of the Board of Directors. A former member who has allowed her dues to lapse for the period of a full fiscal year or more may be enrolled as a member in accordance with the by-laws relative to the admission of a new member.

Section 5. Each club shall pay National annual convention dues:

Less than 100 members	$ 3.00
100-299 members	6.00
300-499 members	9.00
500-699 members	12.00
700 and over	15.00

Convention dues shall accompany the club's first annual remittance of dues and shall be based on the final membership figures for each fiscal year as recorded in the National Executive Offices.

ARTICLE VII - AFFILIATION OF CLUB MEMBERS WHO HAVE MOVED

Section 1. A member in good standing from another Business and Professional Women's Club, which is affiliated with the National Federation, shall, upon showing the proper credentials to the Club President, be extended the courtesies of this club for the balance of the current fiscal year without the right to vote, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. When a member of this club moves to a locality outside the District of Columbia, the Club President shall notify the national executive offices, with a copy to her State president and to the president of the State federation into which the member is moving, by sending her name and complete new address.

ARTICLE VIII - OFFICERS

Section 1. The elected officers of the club shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Third Vice-President, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, and a Treasurer. Such officers shall constitute the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Only members actively engaged in business or in the professions, who are members in current good standing, shall be eligible for elective office.

Section 3. The elected officers, immediate past president, the chairmen of standing committees, and the chairman of the Board of House Management shall constitute the Board of Directors, with voice and vote. The chairmen of special committees may attend meetings of the Board of Directors during the period when their committees are active, and shall have voice but no vote.

ARTICLE IX - DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. The duties of officers shall be such as are specified in these by-laws. All officers shall keep a chronological record of their work and turn it over to their successors. The annual reports of all officers of this club shall be filed with the Recording Secretary and become a permanent record of the club.

Section 2. The President shall preside at all meetings of the club, the Executive Committee, and the Board of Directors. She shall appoint the chairmen of standing committees, and a chairman and members of the Board of House Management, subject to the ratification of the Executive Committee, and such other special committees as she may deem necessary. She shall be ex officio member of all committees except the nominating committee. She shall appoint the parliamentarian and the legal advisor. She shall automatically be the first delegate to the National Convention, following her election to office. In the absence or incapacity of the Treasurer, the President shall have authority to sign checks in payment for authorized club expenditures.

(ART. IX - DUTIES OF OFFICERS,
Sec. 2, cont'd)

Section 3. Each Vice-President shall be responsible, according to designation by the President, for supervision and direction of one of the following:

Program
Membership
Finance

(a) The First Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in her absence and shall act in an advisory capacity at all times. In case of the death or resignation of the President, she shall become President for the unexpired term.

(b) The Second Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President or the First Vice-President in their absence and shall act in an advisory capacity at all times. In case of the death or resignation of both the President and the First Vice-President, she shall become President for the unexpired term.

(ART. IX - DUTIES OF OFFICERS,
Sec. 3, cont'd)

(c) The Third Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President, the First Vice-President, or the Second Vice-President in their absence and shall act in an advisory capacity at all times. In case of the death or resignation of the President, the First Vice-President, and the Second Vice-President, she shall become President for the unexpired term.

Section 4. The Recording Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the club, the Executive Committee, and the Board of Directors. She shall preserve in a permanent file all minutes of such meetings and annual and special reports of officers and committee chairmen.

Section 5. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct the correspondence of the club. She shall send to the President and the Corresponding Secretary of the State Federation, with copy for the Executive Director of the National Federation, the names and addresses of all officers immediately after their election; and the names and addresses of all standing committee chairmen as soon as they are appointed; she shall send to the President and the Corresponding Secretary of the State Federation the names and addresses of all delegates and alternates elected by the club, to the annual convention of the National Federation upon their election; she shall also report all changes in status of alternates as soon as made; she shall send all notices to the membership of the club; and she shall prepare the ballots for use at the annual meeting. She shall post on the permanent record cards of the officers and all committee chairmen, the office held by such officers and chairmen for the appropriate year.

Section 6. The Treasurer shall have charge of all monies of the club; she shall be responsible for the collection of dues and for the deposit of all funds in a bank approved by the Executive Committee; she shall have authority to sign alone for the withdrawal of funds in any bank account in the name of the club; she shall pay out of the treasury only those funds included in the approved budget. She shall keep an itemized record in a permanent file of all receipts and expenditures and give a written report of the same at each business meeting of the club; she shall pay to the Treasurer of the State Federation all monies due to the State and National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and as new members are admitted to the club, she shall immediately forward their State and National dues to the State Treasurer. She shall turn over to the Chairman of the Audit Committee within thirty days after vacating office all books, records and papers, and take an itemized receipt therefor. She shall transfer to her successor immediately upon vacating office all funds in her keeping and take a receipt therefor. The Treasurer shall bill all members for annual dues on May 1, to be payable on or before June 1 and shall mail to delinquent members notices of unpaid dues not later than June 1. The Treasurer shall drop from the membership rolls all delinquent members whose dues remain unpaid July 1 and shall include in her annual report the number of members so dropped. The Treasurer shall serve as ex officio member of the Finance Committee.

The President, Treasurer, and Reservations Chairman shall be bonded in an amount determined by the Executive Committee, the cost of the bond to be paid from club funds.

(ART. IX - DUTIES OF OFFICERS,
Sec. 6, cont'd)

ARTICLE X - DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall meet regularly each month, with the exception of July and August. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President or by five members of the Board of Directors, provided five days' prior written notice be given to each member of the Board.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall pass upon applications for membership; it shall direct the affairs of the club in accordance with the National, State, and local by-laws; it shall be governed by the policies established by the club; it shall devise and promote measures for the growth and prosperity of the club; it shall consider all recommendations proposed by the Committee Chairmen before such recommendations are presented to the club; it shall be responsible for the business and financial management of the club, subject to the approval of the membership. With the exception of budgeted items, no funds of the club shall be obligated or disbursed, nor an obligation be created in the name of the club, for any purpose, by any member or group, without prior approval by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. The Board of Directors shall make regular reports of its

(ART. X - DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, Sec. 3, cont'd) actions and recommendations at each succeeding business meeting of the club.

ARTICLE XI - DUTIES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. The Executive Committee shall act for the Board of Directors in an emergency in the interim between regular meetings of the club and the Board of Directors, and shall report thereon at the next meeting of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee shall meet at least four times a year on call by the President. Special meetings may be called by the President or any three members of such Executive Committee.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall formulate the financial policies of the club, subject to the approval of the membership and shall review the action of the Board of Directors with respect to the observance of these policies.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall appoint an Audit Committee, consisting of at least three members, who shall examine the books of the Treasurer of the club semi-annually and shall make audit reports as of November 30 and May 31. Audit reports shall be made at the January and September meetings.

Section 4. The Executive Committee shall ratify the appointments of the chairmen of standing committees and the Board of House Management.

ARTICLE XII - COMMITTEES

Section 1. The standing committees shall be: Finance, Foundation, Legislation, Membership, Program, Public Relations, and Young Careerist.

Section 2. Only women actively engaged in business or in the professions, who are members in current good standing, shall be eligible as chairmen of standing committees.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Finance Committee to prepare an annual budget for the club which shall be approved by the membership, to have general supervision of all expenditures, and to assist the club in developing a sound financial policy. The Finance Chairmen shall be a member ex officio, without vote, of all committees which disburse money.

Section 4. The Foundation Chairman shall promote interest in and support of the National Business and Professional Women's Foundation.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the Legislation Committee to carry out the Federation's legislative program by sponsoring and supporting appropriate legislative and administrative action, and to cooperate with other committees whose programs may be implemented by legislative or administrative action. Such legislation shall be within the framework of the objectives of the club.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the Membership Committee to promote, expand, stabilize, and orient the membership of the club. The Membership Committee shall consider each person proposed for membership in terms of maintaining balanced categories of occupations, viewpoints, age, and representative of the community; then report to the Board of Directors and club on each person recommended.

Section 7. It shall be the duty of the Program Committee to plan and implement a well-coordinated annual program based on Federation objectives. The committee shall meet immediately after appointment to consider the annual program suggested by State and National Federations and develop a club program which shall involve all areas of club activities. The Program Chairman shall present the annual program to the Board of Directors for approval.

Section 8. It shall be the duty of the Public Relations Committee to promote development of a program with maximum public relations potential within the framework of the Federation objectives. It shall be the responsibility of the committee to interpret this program through every communications channel, to direct press, radio, and television services of the club, to encourage wider use of these media and to broaden the Federation contacts.

Section 9. The Young Careerist Chairman shall coordinate programs and activities for young women.

Section 10. There shall be a Board of House Management, which shall be responsible for the management of the Club House, and the formulation of rules and regulations governing such

(ART. XII - COMMITTEES, Sec. 10, cont'd)

management, subject to the approval of the membership.

The Board of House Management shall consist of three members. Its members shall be appointed by the President as provided in Article IX, Section 2. The President shall appoint one of the three members to be the Chairman.

Section 11. Special Committees shall be appointed by the President as needed. The chairmen may attend meetings of the Board of Directors during the period when their committees are active and shall have voice but no vote.

ARTICLE XIII - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Officers shall be elected by ballot at the club's annual meeting in May and shall assume their duties on July 1.

Only women actively engaged in business or in the professions shall be eligible for an elective office.

Section 2. At the regular business meeting two months before the annual meeting the club shall elect a Nominating Committee, consisting of five members, no two of whom shall represent the same business or profession, and not more than two of whom shall be members of the Board of Directors. This committee shall report to the Corresponding Secretary a slate consisting of one or more nominees for each office, the member and alternate for the State Nominating Committee, and delegates and alternates to the National Convention. The Corresponding

(ART. XIII - NOMINATIONS AND
cont'd)

Secretary shall give written notice thereof to the club membership at least ten days prior to the annual meeting. The committee shall present at the annual meeting the names of nominees for office, and delegates and alternates. Nominations may also be made from the floor.

Section 3. If a member of the D. C. Club is elected to and accepts a State office, she shall not be eligible to hold a club elective office in the same fiscal year.

Section 4. All vacancies in elective offices, except the Presidency, shall be filled by appointment by the President for the unexpired part of the term. A vacancy in the office of First Vice-President shall be filled by the Second Vice-President; a vacancy in the office of Second Vice-President shall be filled by the Third Vice-President; a vacancy in the office of Third Vice-President shall be filled by appointment by the President with the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 5. No member shall hold the same office for more than two consecutive terms. An interval of two years shall elapse before a member is again eligible for re-election to the same office.

Section 6. Six months or more shall be considered a term of office for any officer who does not serve her full term.

(ART. XIII - NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS cont'd)

Section 7. The election of the member and the alternate for the State Nominating Committee for the following year shall be held at the club's annual meeting.

Section 8. It shall be the duty of the member elected to the State Nominating Committee to submit to the chairman of the State Nominating Committee not later than February 1 the names of candidates for State office, the offices for which they are candidates, the club's endorsement, a summary of their qualifications and their written consent to serve.

ARTICLE XIV - MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular meetings open to the entire membership shall be held the second Monday of each month, with the exception of July and August, unless a state of emergency is determined by the Executive Committee or the Government of the District of Columbia to exist on that date. The date of a meeting may be changed by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at the previous meeting, except in an emergency when the Executive Committee, by a two-thirds vote, may change the day of the meeting.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the President or by five members, provided notices specifying the date, place, and purpose of such meetings have been mailed to the entire membership at least ten days prior to such meeting.

Section 3. The regular May business meeting of each year shall be designated the annual meeting, at which time the election of officers, the member and alternate for the State Nominating Committee, and delegates and alternates to the National Convention shall be held.

Section 4. An annual report summarizing the year's activities shall be given by the President at the regular June business meeting.

ARTICLE XV - REPRESENTATION

Section 1. This club shall be entitled to representation at the State Convention of the District of Columbia State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, as provided for in the by-laws of the State Federation.

Section 2. This club shall be entitled to representation at the annual convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., as provided for in the by-laws of the National Federation, as follows:

Less than 100 members	- one delegate
100-299 members	- two delegates
300-499 members	- three delegates
500-699 members	- four delegates
700 and over	five delegates

Each delegate shall be entitled to an alternate.

Section 3. Representation at National conventions shall be by delegates actively engaged in business or in the professions.

Section 4. No delegate to State or National conventions shall have more than one vote, and no voting by proxy shall be allowed.

Section 5. Delegates and alternates to the conventions shall be elected by a majority vote of those present and voting. Delegates and alternates unable to attend the convention shall notify the President in advance of the convention. The Executive Committee shall then appoint the number of delegates and alternates necessary to fill the vacancies, if time permits. Otherwise, the President, or in her absence the ranking delegate shall appoint a member from the membership attending the convention to fill any vacancy which may occur in the delegation during the sessions.

Section 6. All members of the club in good standing and registered in accordance with District of Columbia State Federation convention rules shall be entitled to voice and vote at the State convention. There shall be no voting by proxy.

ARTICLE XVI - QUORUM

Thirty members of this club shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum of these respective bodies.

ARTICLE XVII - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern this club in all cases to which they are applicable and insofar as they are not inconsistent with these by-laws, the State Federation by-laws, or the by-laws of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

ARTICLE XVIII - AMENDMENTS

Section 1. The club, to remain in good standing, shall insure that the club by-laws are current and not in conflict with State and National by-laws and policies.

Section 2. These by-laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting, provided a copy of the proposed amendments shall have been sent to every member of the club at least ten days prior to the date of the meeting.

Section 3. Amendments may be proposed by the By-laws Committee, by not less than three members of the Board of Directors, or by any five members of the club. Any amendment shall be in writing and signed by its proposers.

Section 4. Before presenting any amendments to the club membership, they shall be reviewed by the Board of Directors for their recommendations, then submitted to the State Executive Committee for review, to ascertain that there is no conflict between such proposed amendments and State and National by-laws.

Section 5. The final adoption by the club of amendments to or revisions of these by-laws and their effective date shall be contingent upon the review of the State Executive Committee, for the purpose as set forth in Section 4 above.
