Such decision shall be made in writing by the husband to the Club Secretary, and thereafter such member shall pay resident or nonresident dues as may be applicable.

Any spouse who was a member of the Club prior to April 27, 1959, desiring to transfer to a Husband and Wife membership may do so without the payment of any additional initiation fee.

5. A Resident member who shall no longer live or have an office or place of business within twenty-five miles of the Club House may become a Nonresident member upon notifying the Secretary thereof in writing. ### ARTICLE III

The entrance fee for the Resident membership of a husband and wife, living together, shall be $75, and for Nonresident membership, husband and wife, $87.50. If membership is transferred from Nonresident to Resident, the member shall pay the difference in the initiation fee. The Board of Governors may cancel or commute such entrance fees for all those elected to membership during a period not to exceed six months in any fiscal year of the Club.

2. The annual dues shall be fifty dollars for a Resident member and twenty-five dollars for a Nonresident member.

The annual dues for a Husband and Wife membership shall be seventy-five dollars for Resident membership and thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents for Nonresident membership.

3. The fiscal year of the Club shall begin on the first day of April. One-half of the annual dues shall be payable in advance on that day and one-half in advance on October first. The status of a member on the first day of April and of October shall determine whether he shall pay Resident or Nonresident dues for the fiscal year then beginning.

4. Notice of dues shall be sent by the Treasurer to every member in March and September of every year. The name of any member whose dues remain unpaid on the first day of the following May and November, respectively, shall be posted in the house, and a second notice shall be sent to him by the Treasurer and his credit at the Club shall be suspended. If the dues remain unpaid on the first day of the following June or December, respectively, he shall cease to be a member of the Club. He may be reinstated by the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee upon showing satisfactory excuse for his default at the time his membership ceased, and payment of the dues for the current half year and the dues for the intervening period, if any, but not exceeding two years; provided, however, that the Board of Governors or the Executive Committee may waive the payment of the intermediate dues and reinstate a member without payment thereof whenever, in its discretion, it may deem it to be for the best interest of the Club to take such action.

5. Any member who is not indebted to the Club may, upon written application, be relieved by the Board of Governors or Executive Committee, from payment of dues, wholly or partly, while temporarily in active military service of the United States.

6. Upon election to membership, or reinstatement thereto (except where reinstatement falls under the provisions of Sec. 3), a candidate shall be charged only proportionate semi-annual dues for the period from the first of the month in which he is elected or reinstated to the end of the semi-annual dues period.

ARTICLE IV

Resignation and Expulsion

1. A member may resign, by writing to the Secretary, and his resignation shall not be accepted until any indebtedness to the Club shall be discharged, including dues for the current half year.

2. Any member may be suspended or expelled for non-payment of indebtedness to the Club or for any other cause by a vote of a quorum of Board of Governors; notice in writing, stating the ground of proposed suspension or expulsion, having been delivered to him, or mailed addressed to his last address carried in the records of the Club, fifteen days before the date fixed for such suspension or expulsion. The Board of Governors by similar vote, may rescind any such action and reinstate the member, upon or without conditions, in its discretion. The Board of Governors may vest in the House Committee, subject to such regulations as the Board may prescribe, and subject at all times to its control, the power to exclude for disorderly conduct any member from the Club House until action by the Board thereon.

It shall meet at any time at the call of the President or any three members of the Board of Governors. A majority of its members shall constitute a quorum.

6. The Board shall make rules regulating the use of the house and property of the Club by members and guests, and for admitting guests, and may make rules not inconsistent with these Bylaws for any other purpose, and prescribe and enforce penalties for their breach.

1. The membership of the Club shall be composed of Resident, Junior Resident, Resident retired, Life, and Honorary members.

2. The number of Life members at one time shall be determined by the Board of Governors. The number of Honorary members shall not exceed ten living at any time. A limit on the number of Resident, Junior Resident, Resident retired, and Nonresident members may be set from time to time by the Board of Governors.

3. A member neither living nor having an office or place of business within fifty miles of the Club House may be a Nonresident member, all other members except Life and Honorary shall be Resident members. No Nonresident member shall vote or hold office in the Club except those elected or appointed to the Board of Governors.

4. The surviving spouse of any deceased member, living with the deceased at the time of death, shall have the same privileges of membership as the deceased member if within one year of death application is made to the Board of Governors and such application is approved by the Board.

5. A Nonresident member shall become a Resident member on changing his residence, office, or place of business to a location within fifty miles of the Club House upon making a request in writing to the Club Secretary. A Resident member who shall no longer live or have an office or place of business within fifty miles of the Club House may become a Nonresident member. The dues payable by a member for any annual period shall be fixed by his status as Resident or Nonresident member on the first day of such period.

6. Any person elected to Life membership as provided in Article II, shall upon the payment of not less than $2,000 in the amount and manner prescribed by the Board of Governors, have the rights and privileges, and be subject to all the penalties of a Resident member, but shall be exempt from payment of annual dues.
