THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The wealth of service rendered by the wives of Washington officialdom has been a continuing source of inspiration to those charged with the responsibilities for "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" in our Nation's Capital.

Since it was chartered by the Congress in 1908 as an educational, civic and social organization, the Congressional Club has channeled its richly diverse and talented membership into meaningful avenues of service. Throughout our sixty-three Club years our informative programs and social contacts have advised us of the needs and challenges, and our classes and workshops have provided us with the necessary knowledge and special skills to meet them.

The Executive Committee is confident that during the next two years our membership will satisfy the demands of our increasingly complicated national life requiring greater service by better trained volunteers.

We hope that along the course of duty, we can contribute to the social relaxation and the happy fellowship that will sustain the spirits of our dedicated achievers.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CLUB

Colors
Blue and Gold

In 1908, when the Congressional Club was formed, Washington was a leisurely, easy-going town. The horse-drawn carriage, with coachman in livery, was the usual vehicle for polite society as it wended its way through mud-drenched streets while Congressional ladies dutifully "dropped" cards at the homes of members of official Washington. Washington was a city of exclusive social groups and the Congressional group saw very little of what was going on and enjoyed almost no social life in the Capital.

The original purpose of the Club was to establish a non-political group that would promote friendship among the wives of the Senate and House members without the formality of social calls. Twenty-five women who attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Perkins of New York were the pioneers of the movement, but oddly enough, it was a man who thought of it first. The casual dinner party remark of Congressman Frank O. Lowden of Illinois — "Congressional women should have a club for Congressional women" — sparked the women to action.

Mrs. John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, wife of the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, was elected president of the group which rapidly increased its membership and its activities. Despite the venture's success, Congressman Williams was adamant in his belief that women's clubs were unnecessary nuisances.

On May 20, 1908, Mrs. Williams donned her most becoming hat and enticed a luncheon invitation from her husband. While the Minority Leader was "out to lunch", Congressman Julius Kahn of California, whose wife was first Vice-President of the Congressional Club, introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to grant a federal charter to the Club. There were one-hundred and ninety-five ladies named as incorporators, and the bill was passed unanimously.

The very historic residence of former Senator Gorman of Maryland at 1432 K Street served as the first Congressional Club House. It opened officially on December 11, 1908, with a reception for President-elect and Mrs. William Howard Taft. A few years later, Mrs. John Henderson, wife of the Senator from Missouri, gave the land and signed notes for thirty-thousand dollars for the construction and furnishings of the present Club on New Hampshire Avenue. The Club House was dedicated in 1914 with a formal reception at which President Wilson was the guest of honor. It remains essentially the same gracious, charming place which was built so long ago.

Although the idea for the Club was "for Congressional women", the formulation and adoption of rules and regulations established and broadened the eligibility for membership in the Club. Active membership includes the wives of Members of Congress, the Women Members of Congress, the wives of the members of the Supreme Court, and the wives of Cabinet members. Associate membership includes their daughters and daughters-in-law. Honorary membership is conferred upon the wives of the President, the Vice-President, and the Speaker of the house, or their official hostesses.

The Congressional Club has become so popular and attractive that many members retain their membership upon leaving Washington and become non-resident members.

From the Club's membership have come five First Ladies: Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Truman, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and Mrs. Nixon. Mrs. John Garner was at one time Congressional Club Treasurer. Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, now the senior Senator from Maine, also served as treasurer. Former Congresswomen Marguerite Church from Illinois and Catherine Norrell from Arkansas are past presidents of the Congressional Club.

Through the years the Congressional Club has received many beautiful gifts from various sources. One of the most impressive is the notable collection of mannequins representing America's First Ladies of the past one hundred years. Presented by the Eyan Perfume Company in 1962, the collection was the beginning of the Congressional Club Museum and Foundation. Other museum rooms in the Club are: The Archives Room for permanent storage and display of historical objects, furnished and decorated by Mrs. Russell Mack in memory of her husband, the late Congressman Russell V. Mack from the State of Washington; the Hawaiian Room, with its furnishings and decorations a gift from former Congresswoman Elizabeth Farrington and the late Congressman Joseph Rider Farrington of Hawaii; and the International Doll Room, decorated and furnished by the late Congressman John C. Kunkel of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Kunkel, who is a former president of the Club. The dolls were collected through the various Embassies in Washington. In addition to these rooms, the Foundation Committee directs funds to educational and civic needs in the District of Columbia.

Publishing of the Congressional Club Cookbook has been one of the Club's most important projects since 1927, when the first edition appeared to defray the expenses for complete refurnishing of the Club House. Subsequent editions appeared with various innovations. The eighth edition, published this year, has enjoyed a wide circulation.

Traditional Club activities include the colorful and festive spring breakfast honoring the First Lady, which has been held each year since 1912; the Founder's Day program in March, which is open to members only and honors past Congressional Club presidents; the Diplomatic Tea for the wives of foreign ambassadors; and receptions honoring high officials in the three branches of our Government.

The Congressional Club offers a variety of activities, including Red Cross work, Capitol Hill tours for wounded servicemen, work at Children's Hospital and at an inner city school, art tours and classes in many fields, including creative writing, painting, public speaking, languages, and flower arranging. The Club hosts art shows, children's parties, a Goodwill Industries tour, private parties, including wedding receptions, in addition to the weekly luncheons, coffees, or teas which feature varied programs by famous and talented personalities.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The basic foundation for the Congressional Club's existence is that of union, the unique union of talented women who compose the other half of America's legislative leaders. The Club is also a union of ideas, of service, of pride and social awareness and finally, the Congressional Club represents a union of members who strongly profess the ideals of our land and the basic beliefs of American Democracy.

A home away from home, the Congressional Club was chartered by Congress in 1908 as an educational, civic and social organization. It is with this intent that the organization continues to prosper and progress; to reach out and to achieve; to study and become aware; and to dream and secure fulfillment.

The next two years will undoubtedly be a rewarding experience. We are pleased that the Congressional Club can serve as your vehicle for this.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CLUB

Colors
Blue and Gold

The original purpose of the Congressional Club when it was formed in 1908 was to provide a non-partisan setting for friendships among the wives of House and Senate members in Washington, D.C. Although the scope of the club and the breadth of its activities has increased over the years, its purpose remains the same.

Rep. Frank Lowden of Illinois' remark that "Congressional women should have a club for Congressional women" seems to have been the beginning of the founding of the Congressional Club. A group of 25 women at luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Perkins of New York formed the first membership nucleus, and elected Mrs. John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, the wife of the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, as its first President. The club became more active and increased its membership, in spite of Rep. Williams' belief that women's clubs were unnecessary nuisances.

To this day, Congressional Club members enjoy recalling that on May 20, 1908, the U.S. Congress passed a bill unanimously which granted a Federal charter to the club. The act was accomplished without the opposing presence of Minority Leader Williams, whose wife was keeping him occupied at luncheon. Ever since then the club has functioned as a self-supporting non-profit organization.

The first Congressional Club house was the historic residence of former Senator Gorman of Maryland at 1432 K Street. It opened officially on December 11, 1908, with a reception for President-elect and Mrs. William Howard Taft. A few years later Mrs. John Henderson, the wife of the Senator from Missouri, gave the land and signed notes for $30,000 for the construction and furnishing of the present club on New Hampshire Avenue. The club house was dedicated in 1914 with a formal reception at which President Wilson was the guest of honor.

The adoption of rules established and broadened the eligibility for membership in the club. Active membership now includes wives of Members of Congress, women Members of Congress, wives of Supreme Court Justices, and wives of members of the President's Cabinet. Associate membership includes their daughters and daughters-in-law. Lifetime Honorary membership is conferred upon the wives of the President, the Vice-President, and the Speaker of the House, or their official hostesses. Many members retain their membership upon leaving Washington and become non-resident members.

From the Club's membership have come five First Ladies: Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Truman, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and Mrs. Nixon. Mrs. John Garner, wife of a former Vice-President, was at one time Congressional Club Treasurer. Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, former Senator from Maine, also served as Treasurer. Former Congresswomen Marguerite Church from Illinois and Catherine Norrell from Arkansas and Congresswoman Lindy Boggs from Louisiana are past presidents of the club, and former Congresswoman Elizabeth Andrews from Alabama is former 2nd Vice-President of the club.

The Congressional Club has been the recipient of a number of beautiful and historic items which are on display. The donors have been club members and other interested and generous friends of the club. Of particular note are the collection of mannequins dressed in replicas of the First Ladies' gowns of the past 100 years and the dolls of many lands presented by the various Embassies in Washington.

Publishing of the Congressional Club Cook Book has been one of the Club's most important projects since 1927. Subsequent editions have appeared periodically, with the 8th being published in 1970.

Traditional club activities include a festive Spring breakfast honoring the First Lady, which has been held yearly since 1912; the Founders Day celebration in March, honoring past presidents and new members of the Congressional Club; the Diplomatic Tea for the wives of foreign ambassadors; and receptions honoring high officials in three branches of our government.

The Congressional Club offers a variety of activities, including Red Cross work and other community services in which members serve as volunteers, classes in many subjects, including creative writing, painting, public speaking, languages and flower arranging. The club hosts art shows, children's parties, a Goodwill Industries tour and private parties. There are also weekly club functions which feature presentations by people prominent in many areas of the country's cultural and political life.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As the great Bicentennial Year approaches for the United States of America our Congressional Club looks back with thanksgiving over the past 67 years. We are grateful to the United States Congress for our Charter in 1908. We are proud of our heritage of service in the Washington area and across the land.

Your officers look forward to the next two years of working with each of you, as we all seek together to find more diversified opportunities for usefulness in this community particularly. We also look forward to more occasions of fun and fellowship with you.

*"A bell is not a bell
unless it's rung;
A song is not a song
unless it's sung;
Friendship is not friendship
unless it's shared."*

This is what our Congressional Club is all about.

Best wishes for the next two years from all your Board.

Affectionately,

Emily Poyer

THE CONGRESSIONAL CLUB

*Colors
Blue and Gold*

The original purpose of the Congressional Club when it was formed in 1908 was to provide a non-partisan setting for friendships among the wives of the House and Senate members in Washington, D.C. Although the scope of the club and the breadth of its activities has increased over the years, its purpose remains the same.

Rep. Frank Lowden of Illinois' remark that "Congressional women should have a club for Congressional women" seems to have been the beginning of the founding of the Congressional Club. A group of 25 women at luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Perkins of New York formed the first membership nucleus, and elected Mrs. John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, the wife of the Minority Leader of the House of Representatives, as its first President. The club became more active and increased its membership, in spite of Rep. Williams' belief that women's clubs were unnecessary nuisances.

To this day, Congressional Club members enjoy recalling that on May 20, 1908, the U.S. Congress passed a bill unanimously which granted a Federal charter to the club. The act was accomplished without the opposing presence of Minority Leader Williams, whose wife was keeping him occupied at luncheon. Ever since then the club has functioned as a self-supporting non-profit organization.

The first Congressional Club house was the historic residence of former Senator Gorman of Maryland at 1432 K Street. It opened officially on December 11, 1908, with a reception for President-elect and Mrs. William Howard Taft. A few years later Mrs. John Henderson, the wife of the Senator from Missouri, gave the land and signed notes for $30,000 for the construction and furnishing of the present club on New Hampshire Avenue. The club house was dedicated in 1914 with a formal reception at which President Wilson was the guest of honor.

The adoption of rules established and broadened the eligibility for membership in the club. Active membership now includes wives of Members of Congress, women Members of Congress, wives of Supreme Court Justices, and wives of members of the President's Cabinet. Associate membership includes their daughters and daughters-in-law. Lifetime Honorary membership is conferred upon the wives of the President, the Vice-President, and the Speaker of the House, or their official hostesses. Many members retain their membership upon leaving Washington and become non-resident members.

From the Club's membership have come six First Ladies: Mrs. Harding, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Truman, Mrs. Lyndon Johnson, Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Ford. Mrs. John Garner, wife of a former Vice-President, was at one time Congressional Club Treasurer. Mrs. Margaret Chase Smith, former Senator from Maine, also served as Treasurer. Former Congresswomen Marguerite Church from Illinois and Catherine Norrell from Arkansas and Congresswoman Lindy Boggs from Louisiana are past presidents of the club, and former Congresswoman Elizabeth Andrews from Alabama is former 2nd Vice-President of the club.

The Congressional Club has been the recipient of a number of beautiful and historic items which are on display. The donors have been club members and other interested and generous friends of the club. Of particular note are the collection of mannequins dressed in replicas of the First Ladies' gowns of the past 100 years and the dolls of many lands presented by the various Embassies in Washington.

Publishing of the Congressional Club Cook Book has been one of the Club's most important projects since 1927. Subsequent editions have appeared periodically, with the 8th being published in 1970. The Bicentennial edition will be published in 1976.

Traditional club activities include a festive Spring breakfast honoring the First Lady, which has been held yearly since 1912; the Founders Day celebration in March, honoring past presidents and new members of the Congressional Club; the Diplomatic Tea for the wives of foreign ambassadors; and receptions honoring high officials in three branches of our government.

The Congressional Club offers a variety of activities, including Red Cross work and other community services in which members serve as volunteers, classes in many subjects, including creative writing, painting, public speaking, languages and flower arranging. The club hosts art shows, children's parties, a Goodwill Industries tour and private parties. There are also weekly club functions which feature presentations by people prominent in many areas of the country's cultural and political life.
