THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

VERALD

Dear Mrs Ford,

The original of this letter has gone to the President's staff for response.

Mr. Horkinson, who is a dear friend, tells me that the Johnson girls did use the City Tavern Association. It has an excellent chef, (I can attest to that), and is a good place to keep in mind "just in case".

Sincerely,
J. Edgar Hoover

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

• August 23, 1974.

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Ford:

It is my honour to advise you that the By-Laws of the City Tavern Club provide Honorary Membership for the President of the United States and his family.

While we realize that the handsome facilities of the White House suggest little need on your part for Club usage; nevertheless we have found that younger members of the family have found the Club most useful in the case of your predecessors.

Please accept this brief letter as our most cordial invitation to all members of your family to enjoy full privileges of our Club at any time.

With all best wishes, I remain

Yours respectfully,

J. Henry Hoskinson
J. Henry Hoskinson
President.

The President and Mrs. Ford
