MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: DONALD RUMSFELD
FROM: DOUGLAS P. BENNETT
SUBJECT: Judicial Status Report

This memorandum reports upon the current status of vacancies and potential vacancies within the ranks of Federal Judges, U. S. Attorneys, and U. S. Marshals. The information presented is based upon Justice Department data and other pertinent materials at our disposal.

It should be noted that Attorney and Marshal vacancies are technical in character. To wit, a seat is rarely, if ever, physically vacant since (1) upon expiration of a term the incumbent continues to serve until a new appointment or reappointment is made; or (2) upon the death or resignation of an incumbent, the court usually appoints an individual to serve until a Presidential appointment is made. Consequently, the existence of a vacancy does not suggest that the job is unattended as is the case with vacancies on a bench.

FEDERAL JUDGES

Within the U. S. and its Territories there are 523 Federal Judges all of which, with the exception of those seats in the Territories and the District of Columbia, are Life Appointments earning a Level II equivalent ($42,000 per annum). Currently, 19 positions are vacant. There are four (4) candidates who have been nominated and await confirmation by the Senate. Three (3) other positions are currently being processed at the White House and six (6) at the Justice Department. Therefore, at the present time six (6) positions are vacant with no candidates under review.

U. S. ATTORNEYS

Within the U. S. and its Territories there are 94 U. S. Attorneys of which 23 are currently vacant. Of these 23, six (6) have been nominated but have not yet been confirmed by the Senate, five (5) others are in clearance at the White House, and the Justice Department is reviewing two (2) candidates. Therefore, at the present time there are eight (8) positions that have no candidates under review.

U. S. MARSHALS

Within the U. S. and its Territories there are 94 U. S. Marshals of which 10 are currently vacant. Of these 10, four (4) candidates have been nominated but not yet confirmed, one (1) is in clearance at the White House, and three (3) positions are being reviewed at the Justice Department. Therefore, at the present time there are two (2) positions without any candidates under review.
