Dear Mr. Buchen:

At the present time there are many items of former President Nixon's personal property, both pre- and post-dating his term as President, located within Rooms 175 and 175 1/2 of the Old Executive Office Building. On behalf of Mr. Nixon I am requesting you to authorize personnel from the General Services Administration to commence segregating, indexing, and packaging such items for ultimate transfer to Mr. Nixon in California. I further request that the GSA personnel be authorized, in the course of this activity, to segregate the personal property of any former White House staff member that may be included among the materials located in Rooms 175 or 175 1/2.

Miss Rose Mary Woods is designated to serve as Mr. Nixon's agent for the purpose of assisting you or your agents and the Administrator or his agents in the task of segregating the pre- and post-presidential materials.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

This will authorize you to enter OEOB Room 414, accompanied by a representative of this office designated by Mr. Casselman, for the purpose of removing therefrom any records of the Executive Protective Service reflecting entry into the Old Executive Office Building by Mr. J. Walter Jones, Jr., for the period April 20, 21, and 22, 1971. Since these records may constitute "Presidential materials of the Nixon Administration" which are subject to the Order of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, as amended, entered October 22, 1974, in Nixon v. Honorable William E. Casselman
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Casselman:

Since January, 1973, a federal grand jury organized by the United States District Court for Maryland and supervised by attorneys in this office, has been conducting a criminal investigation into allegations of misconduct by past and present public officials of this State. During August of 1973 it became necessary for this office to request a review of existing records which would disclose when certain identified persons may have visited former Vice President Spiro T. Agnew at his offices in the White House or in the Executive Office Building from January 21, 1969, up to August 10, 1973. This request was relayed by me to then Assistant Attorney General Henry E. Petersen who, in turn, spoke with Leonard Garment at the White House. Mr. Garment, I was told, arranged for a search of the appropriate records and the results of that inquiry were furnished to this office thereafter by the United States Secret Service.

Since the time that this relevant data was made available to the Maryland federal grand jury it has continued to pursue its investigation on several different fronts. Part of the continuing inquiry relates to the activities of J. Walter Jones, Jr., who, the grand jury has reasons to believe, visited Mr. Agnew at one of his vice-presidential offices on April 20, 21, or 22, 1971. It is, however, impossible to discern from materials which were turned over to us earlier by the Secret Service whether this supposition is correct. We have also been told that, if Mr. Jones was the bearer of a special pass such as the type distributed to persons whose names may have been on what was called the "access list," it is unlikely that his name would appear in the registry of visitors for any of those days.

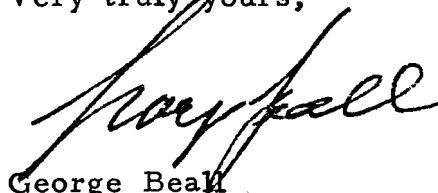

January 8, 1975

It is imperative that the grand jury learn whether or not Mr. Jones' name appears on any of the diaries, logs or records reflecting visitors to the former Vice President on those three dates and, if not, whether Mr. Jones was the possessor of some sort of identification which would explain the omission. To that end I write to ask that another, follow-up examination of existing records be undertaken by the Secret Service and that we be advised of the results. We will, of course, relay the information to the local grand jury.

From my notes I can reconstruct for you the substance of prior phone conversations which led to the original production of the investigative material, if it becomes necessary for you to confirm any factual details with other people involved in that earlier activity. I do recall that Special Agent Louis Simms of the United States Secret Service in Washington was personally involved with the original request in some way.

I trust that this letter will serve as an adequate predicate for this office to obtain clarification of what to this point is a factual ambiguity. If a need for additional background arises, please feel free to get back in touch. Thank you for your customary cooperation.

Very truly yours,

George Beall

Dear Mr. Casselman:

Several weeks ago I authorized the preparation of indices of certain former White House staff member files designated by the Special Prosecutor. These indices were prepared by Archivist personnel and are presently in your custody.

As the result of continuing discussions between the Special Prosecutor and this office, the Special Prosecutor has reiterated a request for production of certain of the Nixon presidential materials which he believes may be relevant to criminal investigation or prosecution within his jurisdiction. In order to aid me in determining whether to comply with the Special Prosecutor's requests, we have agreed to provide the Special Prosecutor the indices referred to above so that he may prepare a listing of the file folders which should be searched to retrieve items pertinent to his requests. The Special Prosecutor's request for access to the indices is being sent to you this day by letter.

Dear Mr. Miller:

Pursuant to the procedures established by Judge Richey's temporary restraining order now outstanding in Nixon v. Sampson and consolidated actions, you have consented to the Special Prosecutor having access to certain Presidential tape recordings for use in connection with the trial of United States v. Connally. You have requested, however, that the Special Prosecutor issue a subpoena for these recordings. We have acceded to this request, and will be serving a subpoena today, but only upon the assurance from you that issuance of this subpoena will not constitute a waiver of any of the legal positions we are asserting in Nixon v. Sampson. In particular, you have assured us that issuance of the subpoena will not constitute any concession that the November 9 Agreement is not valid, that Mr. Nixon is the owner or legal custodian of the materials now located in the White House relating to his Administration, or that Mr. Nixon is the proper respondent for any subpoena for the materials.

We understand that you will make copies of the subpoenaed recordings available to us in the immediate future. As you are aware, if it becomes necessary to introduce any of the recordings into evidence at the trial in United States v. Connally, we will require the originals for purposes of authentication under procedures similar to those employed in United States v. Mitchell, et al.

Dear Mr. Buchen:

As a result of discussions with Mr. Henry Ruth, Special Prosecutor, Mr. Ruth has provided me a list of conversations which he believes may be contained in various tape recordings of conversations produced during Mr. Nixon's term as President. This letter is to request that you arrange for the retrieval and duplication of the tape recordings corresponding to the dates set forth in Mr. Ruth's letter to Mr. Miller dated January 27, 1975, a copy of which is attached hereto. To facilitate that process, I hereby authorize you to receive from the General Services Administration copies of President Nixon's daily diaries for the relevant dates upon the understanding that these diaries will later be made available to me should I determine to undertake a review of the recordings in issue.

I hereby waive, on behalf of Mr. Nixon, the right to be present during the retrieval of these recordings and diaries.

Sincerely yours,

R. Stan Mortenson

Dear Mr. Miller:

Pursuant to our discussions, we are sending you a partial list of conversations for which we intend to request tapes. As we discussed, the purpose of this list is to allow the commencement of the process of copying the tapes which contain these conversations. As soon as you are prepared to begin listening to these tapes we will supply you with a description of the relevant subject matters we have reason to believe are discussed at these meetings. Within a short time we will supply you with an additional list of approximately fifteen dates upon which conversations for which we will request tapes took place. Once that list is submitted it will complete our requests for tapes which we now need. It is likely, of course, that as these investigations continue we may find it necessary to seek tapes of additional conversations.

The following is the list of conversations. Where we can supply an exact time and place we have done so. In other instances that information can be supplied by referring to the President's Daily Diary.

1. May 5, 1971: Richard Nixon - H. R. Haldeman
(approximately 9:35 a.m. in Oval Office)

This will authorize Mrs. Gertrude Fry, acting as my agent, to enter Safe Zone 128 on this date in order to locate and remove the following original Presidential tape recordings: February 14, 1973 #2 (Oval), February 23, 1973 (Oval), February 16, 1973 (Oval) and March 1, 1973 (Oval).

The purpose of this authorization is to permit certain portions of this recording to be duplicated by representatives of the Special Prosecutor using equipment they have set up within the Old Executive Office Building. This request is in accordance with the letter of Mr. R. Stan Mortenson, attorney for former President Nixon, dated January 28, 1975, and which enclosed a request from Mr. Henry Ruth, the Special Prosecutor for certain taped conversations in connection with ongoing investigations of the Watergate Special Prosecution Force.

The above-referenced original recordings should be receipted from Mrs. Fry by a representative of the Secret Service in the customary manner. Prior to duplication by representatives of the Special Prosecutor, the original recordings should be receipted by a representative of the Special Prosecutor from your representative. It is requested that your representative, along with Mrs. Fry or a member of my staff, remain present with the original recordings until they have been returned to Safe Zone 128. These recordings will be monitored by headphones and it will not be necessary for your representative to listen to any portion thereof. The assistance of a representative of the Technical Security Division in checking this equipment is again most appreciated.

Following duplication, the original recording should be receipted back to your representative for return to Safe Zone 128 in the customary manner.

Until ready for delivery to the Special Prosecutor, the duplicate recordings may be stored in Safe Zone 128 (with appropriate receipt between Mrs. Fry and a member of my staff) and may then be removed only upon the written request of either myself or Mr. Casselman.

United States v. Ralph G. Newman
Criminal Nos. 75 Cr. 443, 75 Cr. 508 (N.D. Ill.)

Dear Mr. Buchen:

As you perhaps are aware, this Office currently is preparing the above-captioned cases for trial. The case of United States v. Frank DeMarco, Jr. currently is scheduled for trial to commence on September 16, 1975. The case of United States v. Ralph G. Newman currently is scheduled for trial to commence on October 28, 1975.

In preparing for these trials, we have determined that there are certain documents among those papers claimed by former President Richard M. Nixon to constitute his personal property which might be relevant to these cases. These fall into two categories:

(1) Three memoranda in the files of former White House aide Peter Flanigan; and

(2) White House travel vouchers relating to trips made by former White House aide Edward L. Morgan in 1969 and 1970.

The documents in Mr. Flanigan's files have been described to us as follows:

(a) A memorandum dated between November 28, 1969, and December 12, 1969, from Mr. Flanigan to Mr. John Ehrlichman stating, in part, "there is one bit of information I need to know, the kind of institution to which the President is planning to give his papers" and referring, in general, to the former President Nixon's pre-Presidential papers;

Philip W. Buchen, Esquire

(b) A memorandum dated either December 10, or 11, 1969, from Mr. Flanigan to Mr. Ehrlichman and/or Mr. Bryce Harlow referring to conversations between Mr. Flanigan and former Senator George Smathers relating to proposed legislation concerning the tax deductibility of gifts of papers; and

(c) A memorandum dated either December 3 or 4, 1969, from Mr. Flanigan to a Mr. Gene Cowen (ph.) referring, among other things, to the possible December, 1969, adjournment date of Congress.

We are informed that these memoranda should be among the chronological files maintained by Mr. Flanigan during his tenure at the White House.

The trips by Mr. Morgan of possible relevance are as follows:

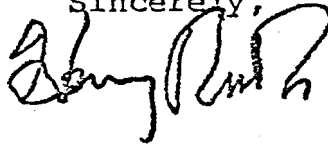

- (a) 2/11/69 to 3/3/69 (Europe)
- (b) 5/29/69 to 6/6/69 (California)
- (c) 9/24/69 (San Diego)
- (d) 10/2/69 (New York)
- (e) 11/2-3/69 (New York)
- (f) 2/9/70 (New York)
- (g) 2/21/70 (Atlanta)
- (h) 3/31/70 (Caribbean)
- (i) 4/70 (Atlanta, Florida, Bahamas)
- (j) 8/14/70 (New Orleans)

Dear Barry:

Pursuant to the provisions in the outstanding court order in Nixon v. Administrator, I hereby request access to copies of the tape recordings of Mr. Nixon's conversations as follows:

May 10, 1973 (Oval Office)
May 11, 1973 (Oval Office)
May 18, 1973 (EOB Office)
January 15, 1973 (Oval or EOB Office)

I am uncertain at this time whether there, in fact, is a tape for January 15, 1973. It may be that President Nixon was in Key Biscayne at the time. Therefore, if you do not locate a January 15, 1973 recording, simply disregard that request.

I would like to also request access to a copy of the tape recording of residence telephone calls for June and July 1973, and the telephone calls at Camp David on June 28 and 29, 1973.

As always, I thank you for your assistance.
