Mr. Philip Buchen Council to the President White House, Washington, D.C.

Dear Phil:

It certainly was nice seeing you last night at the Ford - Goebel reception at the Hospitality Motor Inn.

I do have a favor to ask of you in nominating one of my good friends who is very capable and who is Vice Pres.-Engineering of the Hatteras Yachts, division of American Machine Foundry, Inc. to the key position of appointment to the Boat & Safety Advisory Council U.S. Coast Guard.

The following people have shown their willingness to support Mr. William M. Sanford who I feel is very well qualified for this position. They are: Sam Ervin, Jesse Helms, Richardson Preyer and Wilmer Mizell of North Carolina, Dick VanderVeen, Robert Griffin, and Guy VanderJagt of Grand Rapids.

Would appreciate whatever you can do to have Mr. Sanford nominated to this position. I am enclosing herewith some letters sent to other public officials indicating qualifications of Mr. Sanford.

Thank you again for your support.

Sincerely yours, MICHIGAN WHEEL CORP.

> Subject: Recommendation for Appointment to Boat Safety Advisory Council, U.S.C.G.

Dear Mrs. Landrus,

Under Section 33 of the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971 (Public Law 92-75, 85STAT213) the Boat Safety Advisory Council is commissioned to provide to the United States Coast Guard, Department of Transportation the judgments as to whether or not regulations for safety are necessary. This Council is composed of seven members of the general public, seven members of State Law Enforcement Agencies, and seven members from the Boating Industry itself. The appointment which I am seeking is in this last category. There are three openings for members whose three-year terms are expiring.

I expect Admiral Thompson, who is Chief, Boat Safety Division, U.S.C.G., will recommend reappointment of at least two of the three members whose terms expire. According to the Act the appointments are made by the Secretary of the Department under which the Coast Guard is found. In this case it is under the Department of Transportation and is Secretary Claude F. Brinegar.

There is a good reason for asking for your help in getting me appointed to the B.S.A.C. Of the seven people representing industry there is not one who has day-to-day experience building a boat over twenty feet in length. The lack of knowledge on the part of these gentlemen has caused me to plead with each member in the past year for changes in the regulation writing to keep large boats in the manufacturing business. In other words, by a lack of knowledge the present members could not see those facets of regulations which would cripple or absolutely stop the manufacture of boats above twenty feet in length. Admiral Thompson himself is aware of the lack of expertise on the part of the industry Council members. I have enclosed my letter to Admiral Thompson regarding this particular subject.

Mrs. Sherry Landrus September 24, 1974

Page Two

As for rounded experience and expertise in the areas outlined previously, I really can think of no man in the industry who has had the experience and exposure to learning that I have had. I have had twenty-seven years in all facets of the boat field. I have designed and caused to be built outboard motors, outboard boats (12'-18'), and have been in charge of construction of inboard/outboard boats, single engine cruisers to triple engine cruisers in lengths from 23 feet to 70 feet. I have had first hand experience in the manufacture of wood boats, steel boats, aluminum boats, and fiberglass boats.

I have had twenty years and still am a resident of Michigan.
During that period of time in the environs of Holland,
Michigan, I have been Treasurer, Chamber of Commerce; President,
West Ottawa School Board; member, Holland Economic Development
Corporation; President, Ottawa County Association for Retarded
Children; and a part in many other community activities.

Very briefly, starting in 1947 after departing active duty with the Air Force, I worked seven years in the outboard motor manufacturing area as a Chief Experimental Engineer, Quality Engineer, and Chief Engineer. For the past twenty years my positions in the boat company have included Plant Manager, General Manager, and Vice President of Engineering, I will furnish to you a full resume if it is deemed necessary.

In order for you to get other opinions regarding the writer, I would suggest that you contact L. C. (Curley) Dalman, Henry Maentz, and Russell Fredricks, all of whom are located in Holland, Michigan.

I will be delighted to fill you in with any further information that you may desire. For the sake of time, which I think is short, I suggest a collect call to 919-885-6356. This will help me expedite getting information to you by a matter of some days. I certainly shall be very indebted to you for any action that you may see fit to take on my behalf.

Very truly yours,

William M. Sanford

Admiral John F. Thompson Chief, Office of Boating Safety U.S.C.G. (G-B) Washington, D. C. 20590

Dear Admiral Thompson,

The terms of three industry members of the Boat Safety Advisory Council expire very shortly. We, as a boat manufacturer owe much to these gentlemen. They have ably contributed to boating safety in general while yet combatting uneven economic burden to achieve safety.

We, at Hatteras Yachts, have a line of pleasure boats today that starts at thirty-one feet in length and extends in differing models to a seventy foot boat. In many areas of manufacturing processes, the techniques and problems faced are common whether a boat is fifteen feet long or fifty feet long. But, it must also be viewed "prime facia" that there cannot be complete parallelism in the systems, processes, or problems of manufacture with this size differential. We feel, as a consequence, that, while the present industry members, whose maximum boat size approaches twenty-six feet, have definitely tried, they could not by lack of real experience serve our needs of modification of new regulation language as well as one from our segment of the industry might do it.

We feel it reasonable that one member of the seven in the industry segment of B.S.A.C. be drawn from among the "larger" small boat manufacturers, and to that end invite your serious consideration of this "large boat" expertise as appointment recommendations issue from your office.

Very truly yours,

William M. Sanford

MEMORANDUM FOR:

BILL WALKER

J. ROBINSON WEST

THROUGH:

PHIL BUCHEN .W.B.

FROM:

DUDLEY CHAPMAN AC

SUBJECT:

Chairmanship of the President's

Cancer Panel

The President's Cancer Panel is established under P.L. 92-218 of December 23, 1971. Three members are appointed for three-year terms by the President and a Chairman is designated from among the members for a one-year term. Benno C. Schmidt of New York was appointed member and Chairman of the Panel at its inception on February 22, 1972.

When his first one-year term as Chairman expired in February 1973, no formal action was taken to reappoint him, though he continued to serve in that position. In August 1973, the Records Office discovered the omission and an Order was signed appointing him Chairman effective as of February 1973. This term expired in February 1974, and again no formal action was taken to reappoint him, though he continued to serve. In addition, his membership on the Board expired in February 1975 and he continues to serve as member and Chairman although there has been no formal appointment.

I have contacted Mr. Schmidt by telephone who tells me that on the occasion of each of these expiring terms he was personally asked by the President then in office to continue serving. He also affirms that his duties are advisory only, and that his responsibilities as Chairman do not include approval of the expenditure of any funds.

The Office of Legal Counsel (Leon Ulman) advised orally that an appointment can be made retroactively. Of the three omitted appointments, only two are within the term of the incumbent President, and date back only to February 1975. A single Order could therefore be signed by the President reappointing Schmidt as a member and as Chairman, effective February 23, 1975.

According to Ulman, it would also be possible to make a retroactive appointment covering the expired term as Chairman from February 1974 to February 1975. If any need for such an appointment should later arise, it could be done at that time, but I see no requirement for doing it now and some disadvantage in purporting to make an appointment with retroactive effect prior to this President's term of office. It would also seem possible to argue that President Nixon's oral request to Schmidt amounted to an appointment covering the 1974-1975 Chairmanship.

We cannot give an abstract opinion as to whether the absence of a formal appointment covering the Chairmanship from February 1974 to February 1975 might have some effect on the authenticity of any act the Chairman may have taken. For the reasons stated above, however, there appears to be no significant legal risk, and I would favor taking no present action with respect to that period. It should be sufficient now to grant him a new appointment as member and Chairman, effective as of February 23, 1975.

Please xerox copy of memo after Mr. Buchen signs and send a copy to Mr. West.

Thank you very much.

SUBJECT:

Chairmanship of the President's

Cancer Panel

The President's Cancer Panel is composed of three members appointed by the President for three year terms. A chairman is designated from among the members for a one year term.

Benno C. Schmidt of New York has served as both member and Chairman of the Panel since it was formally established on February 22, 1972. It has come to our attention, however, that the previous administration neglected to redesignate Mr. Schmidt as Chairman when his term (as Chairman) expired in February, 1974. Mr. Schmidt has recently been reappointed for a three year term and designated to be Chairman for one year.

Would you please determine whether any acts performed by Mr. Schmidt as Chairman during 1974 and 1975 are legally jeopardized by this circumstance?

Dr. Robert C. Seamans, Jr. was elected President of the National Academy of Engineering on May 15, 1973 following completion of his responsibilities as Secretary of the Air Force (February 1969 - May 1973).

'Dr. Seamans was born on October 30, 1918 in Salem, Massachusetts. He attended Lenox School, Lenox, Massachusetts; earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering at Harvard University in 1939; a Master of Science degree in Aeronautics at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in 1942; and a Doctor of Science degree in Instrumentation from MIT in 1951. Dr. Seamans has also received the following honorary degrees: Doctor of Science from Rollins College (1962) and from New York University (1967); Doctor of Engineering from Norwich Academy (1971); from Notre Dame (1974), and from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI) in 1974. He is a member of the Board of Trustees of the National Geographic Society.

From 1941 to 1955 he held teaching and project positions at MIT during which time he worked on aeronautical problems, including instrumentation and control of airplanes and missiles. Positions that he held at MIT include: Instructor (1941 - 1945), Assistant Professor (1945 - 1950) and Associate Professor (1950 - 1955), Department of Aeronautical Engineering; Project Engineer, Instrumentation Laboratory; Chief Engineer, Project Meteor; and Director, Flight Control Laboratory.

Dr. Seamans joined Radio Corporation of America (RCA) in 1955 as Manager of the Airborne Systems Laboratory and Chief Systems Engineer of the Airborne Systems Department. In 1958, he became Chief Engineer of the Missile Electronics and Controls Division at RCA in Burlington, Massachusetts.

In 1960, Dr. Seamans joined the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) as Associate Administrator. In 1965, he became Deputy Administrator, retaining many of the general management-type responsibilities of the Associate Administrator and also serving as Acting Administrator. During his years at NASA he worked closely with the Department of Defense in research and engineering programs and served as Co-chairman of the Astronautics Coordinating Board. Through these associations, NASA was kept aware of military developments and technical needs of the Department of Defense and was able to advise that agency of NASA activities which had application to national security.

In January, 1968 he resigned from NASA to become a visiting professor at MIT and in July, 1968 was appointed to the Jerome Clarke Hunsaker professorship, an MIT-endowed visiting professorship in the Department of Aeronautics and Astronautics, in honor of the founder of the Aeronautical Engineering Department. During this period with MIT, he was also a consultant to the Administrator of NASA.

• From 1948 to 1958, Dr. Seamans served on technical committees of NASA's predecessor organization, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics. He served as a consultant to the Scientific Advisory Board of the Air Force from 1957 to 1959, as a member of the Board from 1959 to 1962, and as an associate advisor from 1962 to 1967. He was a National Delegate, Advisory Group for Aerospace Research and Development (NATO) from 1966 to 1969.

Dr. Seamans is a member of Sigma Xi, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Astronautical Society, American Society for Public Administration, American Academy of Arts and Sciences (Boston), National Space Club, Council on Foreign Relations, Foreign Policy Association, International Academy of Astronautics, and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

He has received the following awards: Naval Ordnance Development Award (1945); American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, Lawrence Sperry Award (1951); Godfrey L. Cabot Award, Aero Club, New England (1965); NASA Distinguished Service Medal (1965 and 1969); Goddard Trophy (1968); General Thomas D. White United States Air Force Space Trophy (1973); Department of the Air Force Exceptional Civilian Service Award (1973):

Dr. Seamans is a Fellow of the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers and an Honorary Fellow of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics.

He is a member of the following clubs: Harvard (Boston); Chevy Chase; Cosmos; Federal City Club of D. C.; Manchester (Massachusetts) Yacht; the Essex County; and the National Space Club.

His hobbies are tennis, sailing, and skiing.

Dr. Seamans and his wife, the former Eugenia A. Merrill, live at 3921 Idaho Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. Dear Mr. Brecht:

This is to inform you of my agreement that the trip to Europe made by Secretary of the Treasury George P. Shultz in January, 1974, was undertaken partly in his capacity as Assistant to the President. Furthermore, Secretary Shultz acted on the trip as a personal representative of the President of the United States.

Accordingly, pursuant to the request of the General Counsel of the Treasury, I am hereby officially advising you in writing that the trip in question has been designated as an official Presidential mission.

Ken wants you to know that the WH will probably resubmit the Silbert papers. Ken thinks we should support the nomination.

Some Congressional people think there is a problem in getting him confirmed. That is not true. He could easily get approval. I have sounded out the Senate Judiciary Committee and he could be confirmed 10-5 or possibly 13-2. Confirmation would probably take a month.

It has come to my attention through a friend of his that Mr. Joseph S. Sinclair might be interested in receiving a Presidential appointment to some position where his business background would be useful.

I have met Mr. Sinclair and have found him to be a very attractive man. He is a devoted Republican and friend of the President. He is currently serving as Chairman of the Board of Visitors of the United States Naval Academy from which he graduated. A copy of his resume from Who's Who is attached.

If you have any thoughts about a position for which Mr. Sinclair might be considered, please let me know.

Re: Appointment of CARL SMITH, JR., of Bay City, Michigan, as Ambassador to Costa Rica

Dear Mr. President:

As chairman of the State Bar of Michigan Committee for Cooperation with the Inter-American Bar, I respectfully direct your attention to appointment of one of its members, CARL SMITH, JR., a former President of the State Bar of Michigan, as Ambassador to Costa Rica.

Having personal knowledge of the esteem in which he is held by judges and lawyers in Costa Rica, I know of no one better suited than he for that post. I can imagine that a suggestion such as this prompts consternation in "Foggy Bottom," but from what I have seen of U. S. ambassadors in another Central American country of my acquaintance, it is time to stop promoting State Department hacks to their level of incompetence.

In my judgment, it is far preferable to select someone with depth of feeling for a country and a culture, whose intellect, emotions and abilities are truly representative of the United States. Carl Smith, Jr., is a Costa Rican "aficionado" of many years standing. The actions and concerns taken and expressed by him to promote the welfare of Latin immigrant laborers in Michigan's sugar beet area are well-known.

His presidency of 14,000 Michigan lawyers was distinguished. Any man who can ride herd on that outfit is more than adequately suited to dealing with any diplomatic assignment and the appurtenant departmental complexities!

Your appointment of CARL SMITH, JR., as Ambassador to Costa Rica will do honor to him and the State Bar of Michigan to be sure. More importantly, you will honor yourself and the People of the United States by so appointing him.

Respectfully yours,

As you know, I sent a copy of your credentials to the Presidential Appointments Office and the matter of whether there is any possible opportunity for you to be considered to fill the post of Ambassador rests with that office, which on appointments of this type works with the State Department.
