Arkansas Political Practice's Act Pledge

Attached are three copies of the State of Arkansas "Political Practice's Act Pledge" under which a candidate pledges to comply with the Political Practice's Act sections of the Arkansas Election Code. In order to have your name placed on the Presidential Preference Primary Ballot in Arkansas, you must sign this Pledge.

It is the opinion of both the White House Counsel's Office and the PFC Legal Counsel that certain of the reporting requirements set forth in Section 2 of the Political Practice's Act have been preempted by 2 U.S.C. § 453, which states that the Federal election campaign laws ". . . supersede and preempt any provision of State law with respect to election to Federal office." Notwithstanding this provision and discussions which have been held with the Arkansas Secretary of State, the Secretary has informed the PFC that he will not place your name on the ballot without the signed Pledge, unless a Writ of Mandamus is obtained forcing him as Secretary of State to do so. It is the opinion of the PFC that an attempt to obtain a Writ of Mandamus would have undesirable political implications in Arkansas.

Recommendation

It is the reluctant recommendation of the PFC that you sign the Arkansas "Political Practice's Act Pledge." The Counsel's Office and Rogers Morton's Office concur. Please sign the three copies attached at Tab A.

RE: Arkansas - Political Practices Act Pledge

Attached are several copies of the State of Arkansas "Political Practices Act Pledge". This Pledge must be signed by President Ford in order to have his name placed on the Presidential Preference Primary Ballot in that State.

The Pledge has been the subject of much discussion with our Arkansas attorney, Ed Bethune, and the Secretary of State, George Jernigan. We have indicated to Mr. Jernigan that certain reporting requirements set forth in Section 2 of the Arkansas Political Practices Pledge have been preempted by 2 U.S.C. Section 453, which states that the Federal election campaign laws ". . . supersede and preempt any provision of State law with respect to election to Federal office". Notwithstanding this provision, the Secretary of State has informed Mr. Bethune that the only way the President's name will be placed on the Ballot, absent filing of the Pledge, is if we obtain a Writ of Mandamus forcing him to place the President's name on the Ballot. Since any attempt to obtain a Writ would have undesirable political implications, we reluctantly recommend that the President sign the Pledge.

(c) No person shall fraudulently change, alter or obliterate the poll books or books of any election, or break any seals upon any ballot box, voting machine, or stub box, except as authorized by law.

(d) No person shall falsely make or fraudulently destroy any certificate of nominations, or any part thereof; or file any certificate of nominations, knowing the same, or any part thereof, to be false, or suppress any nomination which has been duly filed, or any part thereof, or forge or falsely write the name or initials of any judge of election on any ballot.

(e) No person shall contrive, alter, forge, counterfeit, detain, mutilate, steal, secrete or destroy any election returns or election materials for the purpose of hindering or preventing or falsely reporting a tabulation or check of such returns.

(f) No public official or deputy responsible for registration shall in any manner, wilfully or corruptly permit any person not entitled to register for the purpose of voting to do so; or forge a registration, or attempt to do so.

(g) No person shall tamper with a voting machine, or fraudulently affect or attempt to affect its results.

(h) No person shall vote or attempt to vote other than his or her legal ballot.

(i) No judge of any election shall knowingly permit any person to vote other than his or her legal ballot in any election.

(j) No person shall vote in any election more than one (1) vote.

(k) No person shall vote in any election in the State unless said person is a qualified elector of this State and has registered to vote in the manner provided by law.

(l) No person may cast a ballot in more than one (1) party primary election on the same day in this State or for candidates for more than one (1) political party.

(n) It shall be unlawful for any person to offer, accept, receive or pay any person any money, goods, wares or merchandise or to solicit any money, goods, wares or merchandise for the purpose of influencing his or her vote during the progress of any election in this State.

(o) It shall be unlawful for any person to make any threat or attempt to intimidate any elector or his family, his business or his profession, and it shall be unlawful to attempt to prevent any qualified elector from voting at any election. It shall be unlawful to distribute any ballots outside of those ballots ordered for use in the election, for the purpose of instructing voters how to vote. Provided, it shall be lawful for any newspaper to print or for any television station to telecast a replica of the official ballot, for the purpose of familiarizing electors with the ballot prior to the day of election. It shall be unlawful for any person to attend any voting place on election day and hand out, or give away, any campaign cards, placards, or other articles for the purpose of influencing the electors to vote for any candidate, except in the manner now provided by law.

(p) Any person convicted of a felony as defined in this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, or by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or by both fine and imprisonment. Any person convicted of a felony as defined in this section shall be barred from holding public office or employment in any of the departments of the State from the date of his conviction. If such person is employed by any of the departments of this State at the time of his conviction, he shall be removed from said employment immediately. If any person is convicted under the provisions of this Article while holding public office, such conviction shall be deemed a misfeasance and malfeasance in office and shall subject such person to impeachment therefor.

SECTION 6. PARTICIPATION IN ELECTIONS BY JUDGES. The judges of the municipal, circuit, chancery and Supreme courts shall not participate in the campaign of any candidate for office at any election, other than his own campaign; and it is hereby made unlawful for them to do so. The word participation, as used in this act, shall mean, managing of another's campaign, or any solicitation on their behalf. Such participation shall be deemed to be misfeasance and malfeasance in office and shall subject such judge to impeachment therefor.

SECTION 7. COMMUNIST OR SUBVERSIVE PARTIES UNLAWFUL—AFFIDAVIT OF NEWLY ORGANIZED PARTIES.

No newly organized political party shall be recognized or qualified to participate or permitted to have the names of its candidates printed on the ballot in any election in this State until it has filed an affidavit, by the officers of the party in this State under oath that (1) it is not directly or indirectly affiliated by any means whatsoever with the Communist Party of the United States, the Third Communist International, or any other foreign agency, political party, organization or government; or (2) that it does not either directly or indirectly advocate, teach, justify, aid or abet the overthrow by force or violence, or by any unlawful means of the government of the United States or this State; or (3) it does not directly or indirectly carry on, advocate, teach, justify, aid or abet a program of sabotage, force and violence, sedition or treason against the government of the United States or this State. The affidavit herein provided for shall be filed with the Secretary of State and he shall make such investigation as he may deem necessary to determine the character and nature of the political doctrines of such proposed new party, and if he finds that such proposed new party advocates doctrines or has affiliations which are in violation of the provisions of this Act, he shall not permit such party to participate in the election.

(b) Any person who shall violate any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), and in addition thereto may be imprisoned for not more than six (6) months.

SECTION 8. POLITICAL BROADCASTS — LIABILITY FOR DEFAMATORY STATEMENTS. Neither the owner, licensee, or operator of a visual or sound radio broadcasting station or network of stations nor his agents or employees shall be liable for any damages for any defamatory statement published or uttered in, or as a part of, a visual or sound broadcast by a candidate for political office in those instances in which, under the acts of Congress or the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, the broadcasting station or network is prohibited from censoring the script of the broadcast.
