5:25 Called the Tour Office to check on whether it was O. K. to have Jim and Betsy go over at 9 o'clock tomorrow.

Talked with Mike Farrell; he indicated he always saves a few tickets for the immediate families of Staff Members and would have two tickets available for Thursday morning at 9 o'clock. Nancy called at that precise time and she said they would be here on Thursday and knew that would be fine -- so Mike Farrell will send the tickets over tomorrow.

3:30 Called the Tour Office to get Betsy and Jim Winkler on the tour for either Wednesday (8/12) or Thursday (8/13). Cindy advises that they are in the 2,000's for people on the tour and they absolutely can't put any more through unless there is a cancellation.

I asked if there might be a time when someone could "walk them through." She said for us to walk them over at 9 a.m. on Wednesday and she'd meet us and walk them in to the last tour at 9 o'clock; there would be a White House guide on the tour so they would be able to have all the information about the White House.

1:50 Mr. Whitehead called to ask if he could take Mr. Makino through the upstairs of the White House and possibly first floor of the residence.

Checked with Mr. Farrell's office -- and talked with Linda Stout. In just a few minutes there is to be a large group coming in for a greeting and reception and the whole works -- with Mrs. Nixon -- so it wouldn't be possible. But she could get you into the West Wing possibly (would have to check to see if it's all clear).

The President is in the EOB office so you are cleared to go through the West Wing, can look into the Oval Office and can go into the Cabinet Room if you'd like. Can get W.H. tour tickets for tomorrow morning if you'd like. ( Mr. Whitehead said "no". )

also was able to let them look in at the President's

11 April 1973

Dear Tom —

This is to remind you that my old college fraternity brother, Lawrence (Larry) Simon & his wife Edris, of Bradford, Pa. will be visiting their daughter and son in law, Mary Ann and W. A. (Bill) Yaconis of Centerville, Va. <sup>at Easter time and the week after Easter Sunday.</sup> Bill Yaconis works as an accountant for Continental Telephone Co at their main office at Dulles and Mary Ann is a Home Economist with the State Extension Service.

I have given Larry your office address and phone number and gave him Eva's name and Judy's name. He will be writing you or calling you — or both.

They will want to visit the White House and I hope it is convenient for you and possible for them to visit your office and to meet you and Eva and Judy at least.

Larry and Edris both have taught school in Bradford for years & years and both will retire at the end of the next school year.

They will be in Kansas in June on their way to the West Coast & plan to look at Bismarck, Ark. as a spot to retire in. (OVER)

No news here except the weather has been nice the past two days.

I talked to Mark Sunday and then Nancy called late Sunday mite & I had a good chat with her.

Don't forget Nancy's B-Day on 4/15(29)

I'm mailing her a card today.

This retirement is Great.

Look up the Hill

Love,

Dad

~~etc~~ The Simons and Yaconis's (the four of them as I get it) will need passes for the White House visit.

I have no idea where you will locate them to deliver the passes to them. Perhaps they can pick them up at your office.

It would be nice I should think, for them to park their car out somewhere and then take a cab to your office. That's what I'd rather do. Well — you will work it out, OK.

10:15 Called Peggy at the White House Tour Office to see what we could line up for Mr. and Mrs. Simon while they are here visiting over Easter.

Apparently the tours have been booked up for a month. However, the White House will be open to the public on Easter Monday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and Peggy suggested I might want to walk them over and she would meet us and see that they got in to see the White House without much of a wait -- and then they could see the Easter Egg Roll on the lawn -- if they'd like.

5:10 Called Mr. Simon in Bradford, Pennsylvania; he had received your letter. Will be delighted to go to the White House on Monday, April 23, and he will call me on that Monday morning to arrange a time for me to meet them, and then I will take them over.

We certainly can give you some help in seeing the White House, although, with the tourist season approaching, even the VIP tours are rather crowded. At least you won't have to stand in line for several blocks. I would hope that we would have a chance to say hello too.

Dear Mr. Whitehead,

Recently I wrote to your dad and more recently have had a couple of telephone conversations with him, you being the subject.

Mrs. Simon and I are going to be in Centreville, Va., near Dulles International Airport, during the Easter season. Having seen you on television it seemed to me that since you are the son of my old school friend maybe you could aid us in seeing the White House.

Little did I realize 43 years ago while your dad, Fred Fogg and I were serving meals, washing and drying dishes at the fraternity house in Pittsburgh, that an offspring of one of the trio would be working in the White House. My congratulations to you. I have been an admirer of your boss all of his career. May God bless him and continue to give him the intestinal fortitude necessary to complete a most stupendous task.

My daughter Mary Ann and her husband, Wm A. Yaconis, live at Centreville, Va. Bill is a C.P.A. and works for the Continental Telephone Company, whose offices are at Dulles.

We expect to be there on Good Friday. Will visit with them until Wednesday of the following week. Your dad said to give you a call. If my request is irregular, out of the question or just plain can't do, please feel free to say so.

Respectfully,

L. E. Larry Simon

9:00 Col. Jiggetts said he would like to get some tickets for the White House tour for around 7/21 or 25; will find out exact dates when he's on leave and call back. (Guests will be attending a convention of the Urban League.)

Thursday 7/5/73

3:50 Col. Jiggetts called from Andrews and said he would like 6 tickets for Thursday 7/26 or Friday 7/27; the convention begins 7/23 -- so any time that week -- but preferably the 26th or 27th.

(If we can't get 6, whatever we can get would be helpful.)

3:00 Checked with the Tour Office; they won't know until tomorrow morning whether it will be clear for you to take your guests to the West Wing of the White House.

Suggested they could call when the tour is over, and we can then check with them to see if it's O.K.
(I suggested that to Mr. Leonetti.)

4:15 Mr. Leonetti called back to say he had been through the tour so he wouldn't have to go -- since Ben Harris and Dick Brandeis would like to go and could use his and Margaret's tickets. Then he could come to your office and go over with you when you met them later.

However, I have called to see if we could change the tickets.

They had arranged for Mr. Farrell to meet Mrs. Whitehead and guests and escort them at 9 o'clock -- and then take you and the others on a tour of the West Wing and the Gardens.

They will leave it that way -- and add Major Harris and Dick Brandeis -- and if Margaret can't make it, they can tell them tomorrow morning when they go in. (No problem that they don't have the extra ticket at this point.)

Mr. Leonetti said you could call him if you had any ideas, so I think everything is solved.

528-0344

I had suggested he call you when the tour is over and you could go over and meet them -- Tour Office said you could meet them at the North Portico -- so we can have Coyt stand by unless you can walk faster.

Sure wish we had called earlier.

Shelley Buchanan has nothing in any of the theaters and has a waiting list. Will put us on the list for Friday, April 5, Saturday, Sunday or Monday -- if they have a cancellation.
Indicated there might be a possibility for "Ivory Coast Folk Music" but isn't sure yet; do you want to be on the list if there's a cancellation there?

Hope for a cancellation _____

Also for Ivory Coast Folk Music _____

Preference: Little Night Music

They are booked up for the White House Tour on Tuesday, April 9;
however, we have two tickets reserved for Saturday, April 6.
(They must be getting very strict over there as they used to send us the tickets and ask us to fill in the names; however, now I have to give her the names before she will release them from their office; gave her Anne Cooper, but she needs the other name.)
