

The original documents are located in Box 131, folder “Apr. 15, 1974 - Statement on Loss of 8th District of Michigan” of the Gerald R. Ford Vice Presidential Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Gerald Ford donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Statement by Vice President Gerald R. Ford

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Paul Miltich: 456-2364

I have talked with Jim Sparling, the Republican candidate, and he has informed me that Watergate was only one factor and not the primary factor in the election result in the Eighth District of Michigan. He told me the chief reason for the defeat was that the unions did a tremendous job of getting out the Democratic vote, and the Republican organization did not do as well. As for the President's visit to the Eighth District, Sparling felt it helped. My own observation is that before the President's visit Sparling was about 8 or 9 percentage points behind in the polls and in the final result he wound up about 3.6 percentage points behind. So it seems clear to me that the President's visit was beneficial to the Republican candidate.

#

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Statement by Vice President Gerald R. Ford

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:
Paul Miltich: 456-2364

I have talked with Jim Sparling, the Republican candidate, and he has informed me that Watergate was only one factor and not the primary factor in the election result in the Eighth District of Michigan. He told me the chief reason for the defeat was that the unions did a tremendous job of getting out the Democratic vote, and the Republican organization did not do as well. As for the President's visit to the Eighth District, Sparling felt it helped. My own observation is that before the President's visit Sparling was about 8 or 9 percentage points behind in the polls and in the final result he wound up about 3.6 percentage points behind. So it seems clear to me that the President's visit was beneficial to the Republican candidate.

#

Patsy: The following is the VP's comment on the Michigan 8th District loss, as well as I can recall it.

"I have talked with Jim Sparling, the Republican candidate, and he has informed me that Watergate was only one factor and not the primary factor in the election result in the Eighth District of Michigan. He told me the chief reason for the defeat was that the unions did a tremendous job of getting out the Democratic ~~xxx~~ vote, and the Republican organization did not do as well. As for the President's visit to the Eighth District, Sparling felt it helped. My own observation is that before the President's visit Sparling was about 8 or 9 percentage points behind in the polls and in the final result he wound up about 3.6 percentage points behind. So it seems clear to me that the President's visit was beneficial to the Republican candidate.

#####